What is the Bible?

a. The Word of God given to man

The phrase “Thus says the LORD” is found 1,900+ times in the Old Testament! This means that God spoke to man, and therefore gave to man His perfect Word!

This means that when the prophet said: “Thus says the LORD” he was speaking the word from God Himself to the people! It was an inspired, perfect, and God-given word!

Exodus 5:1 And afterward Moses and Aaron came and said to Pharaoh, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Let My people go that they may celebrate a feast to Me in the wilderness.'"

Isaiah 44:6⁶ "Thus says the LORD, the King of Israel and his Redeemer, the LORD of hosts: 'I am the first and I am the last, And there is no God besides Me.'

Ezekiel 2:4 ⁴ "I am sending you to them who are stubborn and obstinate children, and you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD.'

Deuteronomy 4:1-2 "Now, O Israel, listen to the statutes and the judgments which I am teaching you to perform, so that you may live and go in and take possession of the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, is giving you. ² "You shall not add to the word which I am commanding you, nor take away from it, that you may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you (compare with Revelation 22:18-19).

Here Moses is telling the nation of Israel that they are not to add anything to the Word that God has spoken to them through Moses! And Revelation 22:18-19 says the exact same thing.

The Bible is THE complete and perfect Word FROM God TO Man.

1 Thessalonians 2:13 ¹³ For this reason we also constantly thank God that when you received the word of God which you heard from us, you accepted it not as the word of men, but for what it really is, the word of God, which also performs its work in you who believe.

When Paul spoke the gospel to the Christians in the city of Thessalonika, they received what Paul had to say not as mere words of men, but just as it is, the true Word of God!

Hebrews 1:1 In the past God spoke to our forefathers through the prophets at many times and in various ways,

The absolute authority

NOTE this: The Bible is the absolute authority and standard by which the Christian lives his life. everything must be compared with the Bible -everything must be measured by the Bible

WHY? Because God has spoken in HIS Word and the only book in the world that contains the words from Almighty God is the Bible. Therefore, it is the absolute authority!

Hebrews 4:12-13 ¹² For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing as far as the division of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. ¹³ And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are open and laid bare to the eyes of Him with whom we have to do.

See how powerful and authoritative God's Word is!

NOTHING in your life is ever hidden from God—not even your thoughts!

2 Timothy 3:16-17 ¹⁶ All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness; ¹⁷ so that the man of God may be adequate, equipped for every good work.

Mark 1:27 ²⁷ They were all amazed, so that they debated among themselves, saying, "What is this? A new teaching with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey Him."

Even when Jesus was living on earth, he would command unclean spirits (=demons) to depart from people and when he commanded, they obeyed! Why? Because God always speaks with authority so that even the strongest of foes (Satan, demons) must obey Him!

The standard of holiness

If you want to get to heaven by being “good”, then all you have to do is be perfect—absolutely perfect (no mistakes, no sins—none!).

Matthew 5:48 ⁴⁸ "Therefore you are to be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

Isaiah 57:15 ¹⁵ For thus says the high and exalted One Who lives forever, whose name is Holy, "I dwell on a high and holy place, And also with the contrite and lowly of spirit In order to revive the spirit of the lowly And to revive the heart of the contrite.

John 17:17 ¹⁷ "Sanctify them in the truth; Your word is truth

God's Word is TRUTH. The point of the verse in John 17 is that the Word that God has given to mankind is the truth and the means by which humans are saved and are sanctified (that means, becoming more Christlike, or more like Jesus).

John 16:13 ¹³ "But when He, the Spirit of truth, comes, He will guide you into all the truth; for He will not speak on His own initiative, but whatever He hears, He will speak; and He will disclose to you what is to come.

Of course, this is believed by faith:

Hebrews 11:1-3 Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.
² For by it the men of old gained approval. ³ By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things which are visible.

And it continues...

Hebrews 11:6 ⁶ And without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is and that He is a rewarder of those who seek Him.

How we know about many different realities:

i. God (Theology Proper—the Doctrine of God)

1. John 17:3 ³ "This is eternal life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom You have sent.
2. Hosea 6:3 ³ "So let us know, let us press on to know the LORD. His going forth is as certain as the dawn; And He will come to us like the rain, Like the spring rain watering the earth."

Man (Anthropology—the Doctrine of Man)

1. Romans 5:12 ¹² Therefore, just as sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, and in this way death came to all men, because all sinned—
2. Genesis 1:27 ²⁷ So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.
3. Psalm 51:5 ⁵ Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity, And in sin my mother conceived me.

Philippians 2:3 but in humility consider others better than yourselves.

2. Ezekiel 18:20-21 ²⁰ "The person who sins will die. The son will not bear the punishment for the father's iniquity, nor will the father bear the punishment for the son's iniquity; the righteousness of the righteous will be upon himself, and the wickedness of the wicked will be upon himself. ²¹ "But if the wicked man turns from all his sins which he has committed and observes all My statutes and practices justice and righteousness, he shall surely live; he shall not die.

Sin (Hamartiology—the Doctrine of Sin)

Romans 3:23 all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,

2. Ecclesiastes 7:20 ²⁰ There is not a righteous man on earth who does what is right and never sins.

1 Kings 8:46 for there is no man who does not sin

4. Psalm 143:2 ² And do not enter into judgment with Your servant, For in Your sight no man living is righteous.
5. Genesis 6:5 ⁵ Then the LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great on the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

Romans 3:9-19 for we have already charged that both Jews and Greeks are all under sin; ¹⁰ as it is written, "THERE IS NONE RIGHTEOUS, NOT EVEN ONE; ¹¹ THERE IS NONE WHO UNDERSTANDS, THERE IS NONE WHO SEEKS FOR GOD; ¹² ALL HAVE TURNED ASIDE, TOGETHER THEY HAVE BECOME USELESS; THERE IS NONE WHO DOES GOOD, THERE IS NOT EVEN ONE." ¹³ "THEIR THROAT IS AN OPEN GRAVE, WITH THEIR TONGUES THEY KEEP DECEIVING," "THE POISON OF ASPS IS UNDER THEIR LIPS"; ¹⁴ "WHOSE MOUTH IS FULL OF CURSING AND BITTERNESS"; ¹⁵ "THEIR FEET ARE SWIFT TO SHED BLOOD, ¹⁶ DESTRUCTION AND MISERY ARE IN THEIR PATHS, ¹⁷ AND THE PATH OF PEACE THEY HAVE NOT KNOWN." ¹⁸ "THERE IS NO FEAR OF GOD BEFORE THEIR EYES." ¹⁹ Now we know that whatever the Law says, it speaks to those who are under the Law, so that every mouth may be closed and all the world may become accountable to God;

1.Acts 4:12 ¹² Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to men by which we must be saved."

Romans 10:13 ¹³ for, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved."

3.1 Timothy 2:5 ⁵ For there is one God, and one mediator also between God and men, the man Christ Jesus,

Saved by Grace Alone, Not Works

Ephesians 2:8-10 For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; ⁹ not as a result of works, so that no one may boast. ¹⁰ For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand so that we would walk in them.

5. 2 Timothy 1:9 ⁹ who has saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and grace which was granted us in Christ Jesus from all eternity,

The Necessity of a Godly Life Evidencing Salvation

6. Matthew 3:8 ⁸ "Therefore bear fruit in keeping with repentance;
7. John 15:6 ⁶ "If anyone does not abide in Me, he is thrown away as a branch and dries up; and they gather them, and cast them into the fire and they are burned.

Ephesians 4:1-3 Therefore I, the prisoner of the Lord, implore you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling with which you have been called, ² with all humility and gentleness, with patience, showing tolerance for one another in love, ³ being diligent to preserve the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

Hebrews 12:14 without holiness no one will see the Lord.

10. Jude 1:20-21 ²⁰ But you, beloved, building yourselves up on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, ²¹ keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting anxiously for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to eternal life.

The Security of the Believer's Salvation

11. Jude 1:24 ²⁴ Now to Him who is able to keep you from stumbling, and to make you stand in the presence of His glory blameless with great joy,

1 Peter 1:3-5 ³ Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His great mercy has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,⁴ to obtain an inheritance which is imperishable and undefiled and will not fade away, reserved in heaven for you,⁵ who are protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

13. Philippians 1:6⁶ For I am confident of this very thing, that He who began a good work in you will perfect it until the day of Christ Jesus.

Romans 5:1-2 Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ,² through whom also we have obtained our introduction by faith into this grace in which we stand; and we exult in hope of the glory of God.

15. Romans 8:28-30 ²⁸ And we know that God causes all things to work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose. ²⁹ For those whom He foreknew, He also predestined to become conformed to the image of His Son, so that He would be the firstborn among many brethren; ³⁰ and these whom He predestined, He also called; and these whom He called, He also justified; and these whom He justified, He also glorified.

End Times

Philippians 1:21 ²¹ For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain.

2 Corinthians 5:8 to be absent from the body and to be at home with the Lord.

1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 ¹³ But we do not want you to be uninformed, Brethren, about those who are asleep, so that you will not grieve as do the rest who have no hope. ¹⁴ For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with Him those who have fallen asleep in Jesus. ¹⁵ For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord, will not precede those who have fallen asleep. ¹⁶ For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. ¹⁷ Then we who are alive and remain will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we shall always be with the Lord. ¹⁸ Therefore comfort one another with these words.

4. Revelation 3:10 ¹⁰ 'Because you have kept the word of My perseverance, I also will keep you from the hour of testing, that hour which is about to come upon the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth.

5. Matthew 25:46 ⁴⁶ "These will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

Why are there 66 books in the Bible?

The OT

The OT contains 39 books (Genesis—Malachi, English Bible)

Written from 2000BC (Job) all the way to 400 BC (Malachi)

The NT

The NT contains 27 books (Matthew—Revelation)

Written from Matthew (40AD) all the way to Revelation (95AD)

Other books

There were many, many other books written in the early periods. Some of these books were written by Jewish scholars, early Christians, and other men who wanted to write books for the Christian community or those who tried to write books arguing against Christianity.

Examples:

1 and 2 Maccabees

Wisdom of Solomon

Tobit

Gospel of Thomas

d. Why the 66 books that WE have in our Bible?

The early Jewish (OT) and Christian (NT) communities immediately recognized those men who were leaders and divinely appointed by God as those who could write books for the Bible.

Moses—a prophet of God

Joshua—a leader of God’s people

Samuel—a prophet of God

David—a King over Israel

Matthew—a disciple of Jesus

Luke—a historian and acquaintance with Christ’s followers

Paul—an apostle

Peter—an apostle

Jude—the brother of Jesus

NOTE: The ultimate test of why the Bible contains ONLY the 66 books that it has is the testimony of God the Holy Spirit to His own Word in confirming that in the believer’s heart and soul.

What are the books of the Bible in the order they’re in?

Mostly, they are thematically arranged. That means that they are arranged according to theme (see, for example, the Psalms). In the NT, however, it may also be arranged chronologically (Matthew being one of the earliest and Revelation being the latest book written).

The OT

Hebrew Bible

“Tanach”

Torah (“Law”)

Neviim (“Prophets”)

Ketuvim (“Writings”)

English Bible

Law/Pentateuch

Historical Books

Poetic Books

Prophetic Books

Different order/arrangement of books—but the same books and same words!

c. The NT Gospels

Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John give four different accounts (perspectives) of the life, ministry, crucifixion, and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Historical Book (Acts)

The book of Acts is the “historical book” for the birth, growth, and expansion of the early Christian church.

Didactic (=Teaching) Books

Soteriological Epistles (Rom, 1, 2 Corinthians, Gal)

These four books primarily deal with salvation issues, church ministry, theology, grace, walking in holiness, etc.

Imprisonment Epistles (Eph, Phil, Col, Philemon)

These four “prison epistles” are written by Paul as he is chained to a Roman guard and he encourages different believers/churches to continue fighting for the gospel and keeping the gospel pure by walking in holiness.

Eschatological Epistles (1, 2 Thess)

These two books primarily deal with the end-times—when Christ will come back, what will happen when he does, who will be saved, etc.

Pastoral Epistles (1, 2 Timothy, Titus)

These are letters written to young church leaders (Timothy and Titus) and these books guide as to how to “conduct” church ministry in the local church assembly/gathering.

Catholic (=General) Epistles

Hebrews, James, Jude, 1, 2 Peter, 1, 2, 3 John

These books primarily deal with Godly Christian living and how to know that one is truly in the faith.

Apocalyptic (Revelation)

The theme of Revelation, of course, is the future coming return of Jesus Christ to earth to punish all nonbelievers and to save and deliver those who have trusted in Him. All unbelievers are cast into eternal hell where there is conscious, eternal, and terrifying judgment whereas the believers are ushered immediately into the bliss, joys, and happiness of eternal heaven.

IV. Who wrote the Bible?

Incorrect Theories

Only God God sort of used humans as one would write with a typewriter. They just wrote what God told them.

Only Man (this is the most popular theory in non-Christian circles today)

God had no part in the writing of the Bible. The Bible is merely a bunch of letters and ideas that different people had through the ages and someone much later compiled them all together and labeled it: “The Bible.”

Correct Belief

Dual Authorship (=God + Man)

The human element in Scripture means that an inspired man in perceiving and conveying truth employs his own human mind, his own native language, the common figures of speech, and exhibits his own individual peculiarities, but without misconception and error upon the subject of which he treats because his human mind is actuated and guided by the divine mind (Shedd, Dogmatic Theology, 109).

There is the preparation of the men to write these books to be considered, a preparation physical, intellectual, spiritual, which must have attended them throughout their whole lives, and, indeed, must have had its beginning in their remote ancestors, and the effect of which was to bring the right men to the right places at the right times, with the right endowments, impulses, [and] acquirements, to write just the books which were designed for them (BB Warfield, Inspiration and Authority of the Bible, 155).

Of course, it is NOT wrong to say that God wrote the Bible, but we must qualify it by saying that God wrote the Bible by using the personalities of different individuals!

2 Peter 1:20-21 ²⁰ But know this first of all, that no prophecy of Scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation, ²¹ for no prophecy was ever made by an act of human will, but men moved by the Holy Spirit (lit. “carried along by the Holy Spirit”) spoke from God.

Has the Bible been changed, updated, revised, or altered over the centuries?

The earliest compositions (=the originals/autographs)

Part of the Christian affirmation is that the original manuscripts (that is, those manuscripts that came from the pen of Moses, Paul, Matthew, John, etc) are totally inerrant (without error), inspired (by God Himself), and infallible (it cannot fail) in everything it affirms!

Inerrancy means that when all the facts are known, the Scriptures in their original autographs and properly interpreted will be shown to be wholly true in everything that they affirm, whether that has to do with doctrine or morality or with the social, physical, or life sciences (John Feinberg, Meaning of Inerrancy, 294).

Is the Bible I have today inspired?

The Bible that you hold in your hand is inspired—though it is NOT the original copy that Moses, David, or Paul wrote.

The copies and translations are inspired to the extent that they reproduce the original.

VI. Why is there a Bible?

For God to communicate with His people

For God to reveal Himself

For God to reveal Salvation

For God to glorify Himself

Romans 10:17¹⁷ So faith comes from hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ.

VII. What is the main theme of the Bible?

Climactic Event in the Bible

The crucifixion of Christ

Climactic Theme in the Bible

Redemption – God, because of His grace, delivers His people from sin and transfers them into an eternal covenant with Himself.

VIII. How do I know the Bible is the supreme source of truth?

The test of time

The Bible has existed since 2000BC (when Job wrote).

The test of preservation

The Bible has been preserved without corruption or decay since the original writings were written.

The test of authority

The Bible has the ultimate authority and it has since the earliest of times.

The test of canonicity

The Bible NEVER contradicts itself (though there are paradoxes—two truths that must and can be reconciled) and, therefore, only supports itself in everything that it says and affirms.

The test of archaeology

The Bible has been supported time and time again by archaeology (compare the recent excavation of King David's Palace in Jerusalem).

The test of fulfilled prophecy

The Bible contains hundreds (literally!) of prophecies that have been perfectly fulfilled (Jesus, pagan kings, future kingdoms, Israel restored as a nation).

The test of the Holy Spirit bearing witness to His Word

The Bible is truly affirmed as true in the believer's heart through the person and work of God the Holy Spirit

1 Corinthians 2:14-15 ¹⁴ But a natural man does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually appraised. ¹⁵ But he who is spiritual appraises all things, yet he himself is appraised by no one.

The test of your changed life.

Note what the Galatians were saying about Paul after he was saved: Galatians 1:23 "He who once persecuted us is now preaching the faith which he once tried to destroy."

Application For This Week (James 1:23–25):

Because God has given YOU His very Word, how do you treat it? Does it collect dust?

If you have a Bible at home, why not make a goal for yourself this summer and try to read through an entire book (like Matthew, John, 1 Corinthians, James, etc)!

If you knew that President Obama wrote you a letter that had a surprise inside, wouldn't you read it with great expectancy? How much more should you read the Bible where God declares that you can be saved from eternal punishment?

The Bible is God's love letter to you that TELLS you how to be saved! Read the Bible! Memorize it! Speak about it! Share the good news with your friends! And DON'T do things that you KNOW would displease, dishonor, or shame God if HE were standing right next to you—because He is!

At some point this week, share with just one person (mom, dad, friend, sibling, Geoff) something that YOU have learned from your own personal Bible reading!

How to Know the Bible (i.e. "Bible Interpretation")

Introduction to Bible Interpretation a. "Hermeneutics"

Definition: "Hermeneutics determines the methods, techniques, rules, or principles which will best serve in getting at the proper interpretation of any part of the Bible" (Jim Rossrup).

"Application"

i. Definition:

The Christian asks, "How does it relate to me? To others? To God?"

Beloved, this concerns living the facts!

Here, I bring the truth specifically to focus upon personal behavior so that it is in direct contact with some actual attitude, action, word, or situation in my life or the life of another person.

Why is Studying the Bible so Important?

a. Every believer is (or, ought to be) a student of the Bible!

We are called to add to our faith knowledge

2 Peter 1:5 ⁵ For this very reason, make every effort to add to your faith goodness; and to goodness, knowledge;

2 Peter 3:18 grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be the glory, both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.

Hosea 6:3 ³ "So let us know, let us press on to know the LORD. His going forth is as certain as the dawn; And He will come to us like the rain, Like the spring rain watering the earth

Philippians 3:10 ¹⁰ that I may know Him and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death;

Ephesians 4:13 ¹³ until we all attain to the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature man, to the measure of the stature which belongs to the fullness of Christ.

ii. The Bible is THE source for understanding God

Psalm 19:7-9

The law of the LORD is perfect, restoring the soul;

The precepts of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart;

The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring forever; The judgments of the LORD are true;

they are righteous altogether.

Romans 10:17 ¹⁷ So faith comes from hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ.

Every believer has the Greatest Teacher living inside of him i. God—the Holy Spirit

1 John 2:20 ⁰ But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you all know.

John 16:13 ¹³ "But when He, the Spirit of truth, comes, He will guide you into all the truth; for He will not speak on His own initiative, but whatever He hears, He will speak; and He will disclose to you what is to come.

1 John 2:27 ²⁷ As for you, the anointing which you received from Him abides in you, and you have no need for anyone to teach you; but as His anointing teaches you about all things, and is true and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, you abide in Him.

1 Corinthians 2:14 ¹⁴ But a natural man does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually appraised. Every believer should strive to interpret God's Word accurately i. It takes WORK! ("blood, sweat, toil, and tears!")

2 Timothy 2:15 ¹⁵ Be diligent to present yourself approved to God as a workman who does not need to be ashamed, accurately handling the word of truth.

Have a proper respect and reverence when you handle God's Word!

James 3:1 Let not many of you become teachers, my brethren, knowing that as such we will incur a stricter judgment.

Acts 20:36³⁶ When he had said these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all.

Hard Sayings

There are parts of the Bible that are difficult to understand and interpret.

It takes time and patience to study, and study, and study, and STUDY a passage and seek to find the accurate interpretation.

For example: Jesus said:

Luke 14:26⁶ "If anyone comes to Me, and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be My disciple.

Does Jesus really call me to "hate" my family?

1 Corinthians 11:4-6⁴ Every man who has something on his head while praying or prophesying disgraces his head.⁵ But every woman who has her head uncovered while praying or prophesying disgraces her head, for she is one and the same as the woman whose head is shaved.
⁶ For if a woman does not cover her head, let her also have her hair cut off; but if it is disgraceful for a woman to have her hair cut off or her head shaved, let her cover her head.

Does this mean that every woman must always have her "head covered" when praying?

Exclusive Viewpoints

i. Salvation is only found in Jesus Christ

John 14:6⁶ Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.

1 Timothy 2:5-6⁵ For there is one God, and one mediator also between God and men, the man Christ Jesus,⁶ who gave Himself as a ransom for all, the testimony given at the proper time.

Acts 4:12 ¹² "And there is salvation in no one else; for there is no other name under heaven that has been given among men by which we must be saved."

Hebrews 10:14 ¹⁴ For by one offering [Jesus] has perfected for all time those who are sanctified.
1 Thessalonians 5:9 ⁹ For God has not destined us for wrath, but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ,

2 Timothy 2:10 ¹⁰ For this reason I endure all things for the sake of those who are chosen, so that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus and with it eternal glory.

Therefore, every other way of salvation is false

2 Peter 2:1 But false prophets also arose among the people, just as there will also be false teachers among you, who will secretly introduce destructive heresies, even denying the Master who bought them, bringing swift destruction upon themselves.

Matthew 7:21 ²¹ "Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father who is in heaven will enter.

Therefore, if someone tries to go to heaven without believing in Jesus, he will be tormented in hell forever!

Jesus said:

John 15:6 ⁶ "If anyone does not abide in Me, he is thrown away as a branch and dries up; and they gather them, and cast them into the fire and they are burned.

TIME-CONSUMING!

Be patient when studying the Bible!

It takes time to understand it.

It takes time to know it.

It takes time to apply it to your life!

It takes time to know how to counsel others with God's Word!

IV. Should ALL of the Bible be interpreted the SAME Way?

Yes and NO!

So, what does this mean?

a. Yes

Because all of God's Word is just that—God's Word!

Therefore, because every word in the Bible is God's Word, we ought to interpret it as God's true, authoritative, perfect, inerrant, holy, flawless, faithful and infallible Word of God!

We ought to compare Scripture with Scripture.

b. NO

Because there are different genres.

We don't necessarily read Romans the same way we read Revelation. We don't read Genesis the same way we read Isaiah.

There are genres that help us determine how to interpret Scripture.

Helpful note on HOW to interpret Scripture: “always interpret Scripture in its plain, literal sense and meaning unless it is totally clear from the context that it should be interpreted figuratively or metaphorically.”

Four tools to help you interpret a Bible passage: a. Pray!

Ask God to open your eyes and your heart

Ask God to make the text understandable

Ask God to help you apply the text to your life

Ask God to give you humility and patience as you study

“If one were to study the Bible without praying, it would be like traveling to another part of the world without any assistance, aid, guidance, or direction to help arrive safely to the destination.”
“Not only is it PRIDEFUL to study the Bible without praying and asking for God's help, it is self-defeating, because the only one who can help you interpret the Bible correctly is God Himself—Why would you not pray and ask Him to help guide and lead you to the proper understanding and application of a certain passage?”

b. Observation (“What does the Text Say?”)“This has been called “the art of awareness”. Here, the Christian must learn to relate to the Scripture and respond to the question, “What does it say?” He engages in the fine art of being all eyes and all ears. He is a detective seeking to uncover every clue; he probes deeply into the passage for the what, the who, the when, the why, the where, the how, the so what, and also what does not matter" (Jim Rossrup).

Read the text

Ask the questions

What does it say?

Who was it written to?

Why was it written?

Why is this in the place that it is?

Pray over the text

Ask God to give you wisdom and understanding

Psalm 119:18 ¹⁸ Open my eyes, that I may behold Wonderful things from Your law.

Reread the text

a. Be familiar with it!

ii. Make notes from the text

Note repeated words

Note repeated phrases

Note different titles for God (=God, Lord, LORD, King, Sovereign, etc.).

Note contrasts

Note comparisons

Note imperatives

Note definite article ("the") or lack of it.

Note the relation of the verse to the main theme/argument of the paragraph, chapter, or section.

Note references to chronology

Note references in geography

c. Interpretation ("What does the Text Mean"?)

"The Christian responds to the question, "What does it mean?" He comes to this by a proper use of the raw materials of observation--what he has seen. A proper use of these would involve looking at them carefully according to good principles of interpretation, both general and specific"(Jim Rossrup).

Different Schools ("views") of interpretation Allegorical School

The definition of the allegorical method is as follows: The allegorical method regards the literal, grammatical, historical sense of a passage as a mere vehicle for getting underneath to a hidden meaning thought to be deeper, more profound, and more spiritual.

These see 144,000 Jews who are saved in Revelation 7 as a figurative number for ALL those who will be saved!

But this doesn't work with the context of Revelation 7 (it refers to literal Jewish people who will be saved during the Tribulation period—7,000 from each tribe of Israel!).

Critique: Allegorizing passages has distorted the plain meaning of passages by reading in meanings which have no valid connection with the obvious, literal sense.

In conclusion, this is an INCORRECT way of interpreting Scripture. Very simply, I may see something hidden or behind the text that YOU may not see, and you may see something hidden or behind the text that I may not see. Well, which view is right? God did NOT speak in HIDDEN truths! His Word is meant to be interpreted and understood!

Literal School (correct way of interpreting!)

Nehemiah 8:3, 8 ³ He read from it before the square which was in front of the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of men and women, those who could understand; and all the people were attentive to the book of the law... ⁸ They read from the book, from the law of God, translating to give the sense so that they understood the reading.

When the Scripture speaks of different realities, this camp says that because the Bible says it, it must be true:

If it says that Jesus calmed the storm, then he literally calmed the storm (Mark 4:37-41)!

Devotional School

These interpreters read the surface level of the Words and never dig deep. They read and study to only get the skim milk diet of the Word of God.

The theology of this camp is “a mile wide and an inch deep.” The T-bone steak meat of theology never enters into this camp—they like the simple theology. They don’t want to go deep into God’s Word!

Hebrews 5:12-14 ¹² For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you have need again for someone to teach you the elementary principles of the oracles of God, and you have come to need milk and not solid food. ¹³ For everyone who partakes only of milk is not accustomed to the word of righteousness, for he is an infant. ¹⁴ But solid food is for the mature, who because of practice have their senses trained to discern good and evil.

Hebrews 6:1-2 Therefore leaving the elementary teaching about the Christ, let us press on to maturity, not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God, ² of instruction about washings and laying on of hands, and the resurrection of the dead and eternal judgment.

4.Liberal School

Much of what you would see on the Historical Channel, read in secular school books about “creation” or “God” falls into this “school of thought”—liberal thinking.

Genesis 1:1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

Psalm 33:6 ⁶ By the word of the LORD the heavens were made, And by the breath of His mouth all their host.

Luke 1:31-34 ³¹ "And behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall name Him Jesus. ³² "He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High; and the Lord God will give Him the throne of His father David; ³³ and He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and His kingdom will have no end." ³⁴ Mary said to the angel, "How can this be, since I am a virgin?"

There is no way to believe these Scriptures without believing that God can work miracles! The thinking and thought processes in this camp are in no way grounded in Scripture and belief in God. According to these liberals, the supernatural, miracles, God, and faith is all bogus. According to these interpreters, “everything must make sense according to MY intellect and MY rationale.”

5.Neo-Orthodox School

This neo-orthodox school of thought says that the Bible becomes the Word of God when it speaks to my heart and soul.

It does not possess inherent inspiration and authority from God. BUT, when it speaks to my heart—that is, when a Bible verse ‘leaps off the page and speaks to my soul’—then it becomes inspired by God.

PROBLEM:

2 Timothy 3:16-17 ¹⁶ All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness; ¹⁷ so that the man of God may be adequate, equipped for every good work.

Hebrews 4:12 ¹² For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing as far as the division of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

Cross -Reference (“Scripture Interprets Scripture”)

One or more Scripture passages help interpret the right meaning in another text.

In other words, if you open your Bible and read: Matthew 27:5 went away and hanged himself. Then you open to another text and ask “God speak to me...” and you find the next Scripture which says:

Luke 10:37 Then Jesus said to him, "Go and do the same."

How are you to respond to this kind of person who reads and interprets the Scriptures this way??? 😊

Salvation by the grace of God received by faith, NOT by works But then you read:

James 2:24 ²⁴ You see that a man is justified by works and not by faith alone.

Compare James 2:24 with Eph 2:8-9; Rom 3:19-20; 2 Tim 1:9; Titus 3:5-6; Gal 2:16, 21.

We shouldn't ever become teachers—James 3:1 James 3:1 Let not many of you become teachers,

But note that Jesus Himself was a teacher. What does James 3:1 really say? All it means, in context, is that many people ought not to run too quickly to become teachers of the Bible because we who teach will be held to a stricter accountability and a greater judgment!

The point here is this: CONTEXT IS KING! (OR, “Kontext is King”)

d. Application (“How does the Text Apply to My Life”?)

“The Christian asks, “How does it relate to me? To others? To God?”

Beloved, this concerns living the facts!” (Jim Rossrup).

The importance of this step in biblical interpretation

Observation and Interpretation are absolutely worthless if it doesn't change the way you live.

If your Bible reading does not affect your life, then your Bible reading is useless!

This is what the Pharisees did! They were experts at knowing the Law, but they certainly didn't live it out to the glory of God!

James 1:23-24 ²³ For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks at his natural face in a mirror; ²⁴ for once he has looked at himself and gone away, he has immediately forgotten what kind of person he was.

James 1:26-27 ²⁶ If anyone thinks himself to be religious, and yet does not bridle his tongue but deceives his own heart, this man's religion is worthless. ²⁷ Pure and undefiled religion in the sight of our God and Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their distress, and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

Apply the Scriptures to the way you live life:

Deuteronomy 6:4-7 ⁴ "Hear, O Israel! The LORD is our God, the LORD is one! ⁵ "You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. ⁶ "These words, which I am commanding you today, shall be on your heart. ⁷ You shall teach them diligently to your sons and shall talk of them when you sit in your house and when you walk by the way and when you lie down and when you rise up.

ii. The practice of application

Constantly ask these questions:

How can I apply this to my life?

How can I change something in my life?

What sins do I need to confess to God?

Is there someone that I need to ask forgiveness from?

Is there a way that I need to change my thinking?

How can I STOP putting myself in situations that would tempt me to fall into particular sins?

The duration of application

Application will continue AS LONG AS YOU LIVE!

Until you are perfect in heaven—you'll need to constantly apply God's Word to your life!

THE GOAL IS CHRISTLIKENESS

Ephesians 4:13 until we all attain to the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature man, to the measure of the stature which belongs to the fullness of Christ.

The power in living out application

Comes NOT from you

It comes from GOD to help you apply the Word of God to your own life!

The Holy Spirit guides into all truth

John 16:13 "But when He, the Spirit of truth, comes, He will guide you into all the truth;

Application For This Week (James 1:23–25):

Why not start even now one of these Bible reading plans—just one chapter a day!

Get a notebook and when you read a chapter of the Bible, do the following:

First, pray and ask God to teach you from His Word.

Second, read the chapter once (or twice!)

Third, write down in your notebook a paragraph summary of what you just read.

Fourth, write down ONE or TWO ways in which you can apply what you just read.

Fifth, pray and ask God to help you change and apply what you just read!

God longs to have an intimate relationship with you! If you are a Christian, obey God by seeking to “grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ” (2 Peter 3:18).

Go to a church faithfully on Sundays to hear God’s Word taught! Get involved!!

MEDITATION ON THE WORD OF GOD

THE BIBLE IS THE WORD OF GOD

Request him/her to read 2 Peter 1:20-21.

Say: “Based on this word we read, the bible is the word of God. It is the only one that can change the heart of a person and it is the way that a Christian follows.”

Ask him/her: “How many parts does the bible have?”

Answer: The bible is made of the Old Testament and the New Testament

Ask him/her: “How many books does the bible have?”

Answer: 66

Ask him/her: “Tell us those books”

Answer:

The Old Testament has 39 books: Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, Deuteronomy, Joshua, Judges, Ruth, 1Samuel, 2Samuel, 1Kings, 2Kings, 1Chronicles, 2Chronicles, Ezra, Nehemiah, Esther, Job, Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Songs of songs, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Lamentations, Ezekiel, Daniel, Hosea, Joel, Amos, Obadiah, Jonah, Micah, Nahum, Habakkuk, Zephaniah, Haggai, Zechariah and Malachi

The New Testament has 27 books: Matthew, Mark, Luke, John, Acts, Romans, 1Corinthians, 2Corinthians, Galatians, Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, 1Thessalonians, 2Thessalonians, 1Timothy, 2Timothy, Titus, Philemon, Hebrews, James, 1Peter, 2Peter, 1John, 2John, 3John, Jude and Revelation.

WHY IS IT IMPORTANT TO MEDITATE ON THE WORD OF GOD?

Ask him/her: “What does meditating on the word of God mean?” Let him/her give his/her answer.

Say: “It is deep meditation and be full or circulated by the word of God.

Ask him/her: “For you, why is it important to meditate on the word? Let him/her give his/her answer.

Request him/her to read Hosea 4:6.

Ask him/her: “What does the verse we read teach us?”

Answer: Lack of knowledge leads to destruction

Say: “These are some of the reasons why we do meditate on the word of God.”

Request him/her to read Matthew 4 :4

Ask him/her: “What should man feed on?”

Answer: On bread and every word that comes from the mouth of God

Say: “The first reason why we meditate on the word of God is because the word of God is our spiritual food that gives us life.”

Request him/her to read 2 Timothy 3:16-17

Ask him/her: “What is the importance of the word of God based on this verse we read?”

Answer: Teaching, correcting, rebuking and training in righteousness.

Say: “The second reason why we meditate on the word of God is because the word equips a child or man of God thoroughly for every good work.”

Request him/her to read Psalms 119:105

Ask him/her: “Based on this verse, what is the word of God compared to?”

Answer: A lamp and light for my path

Say: “The third reason why we meditate on the word of God is because the word helps us to walk in the light of God’s commandments. Without the knowledge of the word of God, man walks in the darkness spiritually.”

Request him/her to read Psalms 1 :1-3 and Joshua 1 :8

Ask him/her: “Based on the word we read, what is the importance of meditating on the word?”

Answer: To be prosperous and successful in everything you do

Say: “The fourth reason why we meditate on the word is because it brings us prosperity and success in all we do.”

Request him/her to read 1 Peter 2:2

Say: “The pure spiritual milk said in this verse is the word of God.”

Ask him/her: “Why should we crave for the pure spiritual milk?”

Answer: So that we may grow spiritually

Say: “The fifth reason why we meditate on the word of God is because it helps us to grow spiritually.”

Request him/her to read Romans 10:17

Ask him/her: “What is the relationship between the word of God and faith?”

Answer: The word of God is the source of faith.”

Say: “The sixth reason why we meditate on the word of God is because the word helps us to have faith in God.”

1. ADVICE

Say: “Every time you meditate on the word, it’s good to have a notebook and a pen because of the following reasons:

To write a verse or verses you read everyday

To write the main points or lessons you learnt in brief or summary

Write down what you have decided to do or what you have promised God

Write down the needs (to pray for) and God's answers

2. STEPS IN MEDITATING ON THE WORD OF GOD

Say these steps slowly or calmly:

Pray as it is written in Psalms 119:18

Begin to read a chapter of the word (Chapter/context) every day. Advise: You can begin with the book of John

Take time to meditate on the chapter of that day and answer these questions:

What is or who is talked about in these verses?

Is there anything this verse is teaching me about God, Jesus or the Holy Spirit?

Is there an example that I should follow or not?

Is there a command I should follow?

Is there a promise to receive?

Is there anything I should be alert about? (Warning)?

What secret has God revealed to me?

Are there other verses in the bible that would help to understand what I have read?

Ask yourself these questions everyday:

Which verse touched my heart most in all the verses I read?

In my prayer life, is there anything that God revealed in:

I need to repent?

I have to obey or believe?

I have to thank for or praise him?

I have to ask Him for?

Change prayer, the decisions you take in His time to meditate on the word of God.

3. NOTE

Don't read the bible based on other books, instead read other books by the revelation of the bible.

Avoid "thinking beyond the scriptures", it means you trying to say or explain what the bible did not talk about by adding your own things (Read 1 Corinthians 4:6).

Avoid omitting verses of the bible that disturb your peace (Revelation 22:19).

When there is something you have not understood in the word of God, approach your spiritual leader.

4. EXERCISE

Say: "Let's meditate on Psalms 1:1-6 together based on the above steps mentioned".

Help the student to answer all the questions.

Give him/her homework. Say: “In your own time, meditate on the word in Galatians 5:16-24”

3.GOD: HIS CHARACTER AND ATTRIBUTES

Is there a God?

Atheism: The attempt to deny that there is the existence of a divine and sovereign God.

Can't be true because of Romans 1:20; Psalm 14:1; 53:1

Polytheism: the worship of more than one god, distributing the perfections and functions of the infinite God among many limited gods.

Can't be true because of Isaiah 44:8; 45:14, 21.

Deism: the belief that there is one god who has been absent from the world since creation, and sustains no present relationship to it.

Can't be true because of Hebrews 4:12; Ephesians 1:11

Trinity: the belief that God is three persons in one essence. *Must be true because of Deuteronomy 6:4; Matthew 28:19.

Monotheism: the belief in and worship of one true God and Supreme Being. *Must be true because of Deuteronomy 6:4

The Existence of God

The Knowability of God

“Because God is infinite and humans are finite, human beings can never fully understand God” (Wayne Grudem).

NOTE: It is not inapprehensibility – this means that nothing at all can be known (nothing is knowable) but this IS incomprehensibility (that is, to know everything about/ complete knowledge).

Remember: the Incomprehensibility of God speaks of “complete knowledge” of His being and character.

Psalm 145:3 3 Great is the LORD and most worthy of praise; his greatness no one can fathom.

Psalm 147:5 5 Great is our Lord and abundant in strength; His understanding is infinite.

Psalm 139:6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; It is too high, I cannot attain to it.

1 Corinthians 2:10-12 ¹⁰ For to us God revealed them through the Spirit; for the Spirit searches all things, even the depths of God. ¹¹ For who among men knows the thoughts of a man except the spirit of the man which is in him? Even so the thoughts of God no one knows except the Spirit of God. ¹² Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, so that we may know the things freely given to us by God,

NOTE: “This doctrine of God’s incomprehensibility has much positive application for our own lives. It means that we will never be able to know ‘too much’ about God, for we will never run out of things to learn about him, and we will thus never tire in delighting in the discovery of more and more of his excellence and of the greatness of his works” (Wayne Grudem).

Your responsibility is, then, to study God with humility and excitement knowing that there is so much to Who God is that you will never fully and totally comprehend everything there is to know about God! So, start studying now!

The Revelation of God

*God has revealed Himself through three primary means:

Creation

Have you ever been on a mountain looking at the stars, or on a beach pondering the “bigness” of the ocean, or on a hike marveling at the towering mountains, or skiing and viewing the white covered mountain range surrounding you and thought: “There certainly MUST be a God who made all this?” This is the point. God reveals His “bigness,” His power, his Greatness, His control, and His preserving grace.

Psalm 19:1 The heavens are telling of the glory of God; And their expanse is declaring the work of His hands.

Romans 1:20 ²⁰ For since the creation of the world His invisible attributes, His eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly seen, being understood through what has been made, so that they are without excuse.

Scripture

The primary way in which God has sovereignly chosen to reveal Himself to us is through His Word—the Bible. It is true, reliable, inerrant, infallible, authoritative, and perfect!

God didn't write a message in the sky, or on a mountain, or in a random cave somewhere. No! God wrote down His message in a book that He has miraculously preserved for thousands and thousands of years— without change!

Psalm 19:7-11 ⁷ The law of the LORD is perfect, restoring the soul; The testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple. ⁸ The precepts of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart; The commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes. ⁹ The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring forever; The judgments of the LORD are true; they are righteous altogether. ¹⁰ They are more desirable than gold, yes, than much fine gold; Sweeter also than honey and the drippings of the honeycomb. ¹¹ Moreover, by them Your servant is warned; In keeping them there is great reward.

2 Timothy 3:15-17 ¹⁵ and that from childhood you have known the sacred writings which are able to give you the wisdom that leads to salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. ¹⁶ All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness; ¹⁷ so that the man of God may be adequate, equipped for every good work.

Jesus Christ

Of course, we could read about God all we want yet we would never fully understand who God is. But Jesus Christ—who Himself IS God—is the revelation of God. He who has seen and learned Jesus has seen and learned God!

When you want to know who God is, then study Jesus Christ!

Colossians 1:15-19⁵ He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. ¹⁶ For by Him all things were created, both in the heavens and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities-- all things have been created through Him and for Him. ¹⁷ He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together. ¹⁸ He is also head of the body, the church; and He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that He Himself will come to have first place in everything. ¹⁹ For it was the Father's good pleasure for all the fullness to dwell in Him,

Colossians 2:9 ⁹ For in Him all the fullness of Deity dwells in bodily form,

Hebrews 1:1-3 God, after He spoke long ago to the fathers in the prophets in many portions and in many ways, ² in these last days has spoken to us in His Son, whom He appointed heir of all things, through whom also He made the world. ³ And He is the radiance of His glory and the exact representation of His nature, and upholds all things by the word of His power. When He had made purification of sins, He sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high,

John 14:8-9 ⁸ Philip said to Him, "Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us." ⁹ Jesus said to him, "Have I been so long with you, and yet you have not come to know Me, Philip? He who has seen Me has seen the Father; how can you say, 'Show us the Father' ?

The Essence of God

Main point: God is an Invisible, Personal, Living Spirit

God is Spirit

John 4:24 ²⁴ "God is spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth."

This means that God has no physical body (but, of course, Jesus Christ does now after the cross and resurrection). God has no arms, leg, nose, fingernails, hair, eyes, or toes. All of God is spiritual (like angels, demons, Satan, etc.).

God is Immense:

This means that all of God fills every place. In other words, God is not partly present here and partly present in China and partly present in Australia. He is fully present in every single place in all the universe and beyond!

1 Kings 8:27 ²⁷ "But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold, heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain You, how much less this house which I have built!

Consider this for a second: if all of God covers every space of earth, then HOW must this impact the way we live life. If you go to an immoral movie with horrible language, visual sex scenes, graphic violence, and crude jokes, then think about this fact: you are dragging the FULLNESS of who God is into that wicked and sinful movie WITH YOU!

Or, consider your mind: what you think about, your lusts, your pornographic desires, the websites you go to, the video games you play, the places you go to, the parties to attend, the things you do with your girlfriend/boyfriend— what would you do if ALL of God was there with you? Would that impact the way you live? It should—because He is!

God is Invisible

No one can see God—at any time!

1 Timothy 1:17 ¹⁷ Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

Don't let this fool you, however. Though you cannot see God, He is still there! Though He is invisible, He is not silent!

What about the times in the Bible when people “See God”?

Genesis 32:30 – Jacob wrestles with God (Genesis 32:24-32)

Exodus 3:1-6 -- Moses and the burning bush

Isaiah 6:1-5 – Isaiah’s vision of God in heaven

Daniel 3:25 – A fourth man walking with Daniel’s three friends in the fiery furnace (Daniel 3:1-30)

*Who did the people actually “see”? Who is the angel of the LORD?

God is Personal

This means that he has the constitution and characterization of a “person” i. Self-consciousness

God has the ability to speak about Himself. He reveals Himself. He gives his own name to Moses (Exodus 3).

God has a name: Yahweh

Exodus 3:13-15 ³ Then Moses said to God, "Behold, I am going to the sons of Israel, and I will say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you.' Now they may say to me, 'What is His name?' What shall I say to them?" ¹⁴ God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM": (Hebrew: Yahweh is the "eternally existing One") and He said, "Thus you shall say to the sons of Israel, 'I AM has sent me to you.'" ¹⁵ God, furthermore, said to Moses, "Thus you shall say to the sons of Israel, 'The LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you.' This is My name forever, and this is My memorial-name to all generations.

Intelligence

God has wisdom, intellect, knowledge, understanding. He is an intelligent being.

Romans 11:33-34 ³³ Oh, the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments and unfathomable His ways! ³⁴ For WHO HAS KNOWN THE MIND OF THE LORD, OR WHO BECAME HIS COUNSELOR?

Not only does God know everything about everything. He also knows what could have happened if something that didn't happen happened. In other words, he knows the endless possibilities about everything. For example, "what if I would have driven another way to school and hit the red car on the side of the road..." (those sorts of questions).

God knows it all.

Self-determination

God sets goals. He has plans, purposes, ideas, and wills that are Sovereignly and perfectly determined.

Ephesians 1:11 ¹¹ also we have obtained an inheritance, having been predestined according to His purpose who works all things after the counsel of His will,

Ephesians 3:11 ¹¹ This was in accordance with the eternal purpose which He carried out in Christ Jesus our Lord,

Romans 8:28 ²⁸ And we know that God causes all things to work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose.

Isaiah 46:10 ¹⁰ Declaring the end from the beginning, And from ancient times things which have not been done, Saying, 'My purpose will be established, And I will accomplish all My good pleasure';

The amazing thing about God is that he sets goals and has a determined plan, yet He makes certain that it always comes to pass. It never fails! His plans never fail. Nothing is more powerful than God— nothing can overcome, thwart, deter, change His perfect will!

Consider: everything that happens to you in life (everything—even from the going to high school geometry class to having a best friend killed in a car accident, to having a boyfriend/girlfriend, to the family and parents God has given to you) is in the determined plan of God for YOU and YOUR life! Isn't that encouraging! God has a reason for it all!

Emotions

Do you think God has “emotions”? Can God experience emotions as we experience them?

We do know from Scripture that God: loves, delights, grieves, angers, forgives, is jealous, and many many more!

=these are emotions!

And he understands you. He can relate to you. He can sympathize with you. He is grieved when you sin. He is rejoicing and happy when you are holy and pure and desiring Him!

Referring to Jesus Christ (who is God): Hebrews 4:15-16 ¹⁵ For we do not have a high priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but One who has been tempted in all things as we are, yet without sin. ¹⁶ Therefore let us draw near with confidence to the throne of grace, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

A short Scriptural survey to show that God experiences emotions:

Love: 1 John 4:7 ⁷ Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God; and everyone who loves is born of God and knows God.

Delight: Psalm 35:27 "The LORD be magnified, Who delights in the prosperity of His servant."

Grief: Ephesians 4:30 ³⁰ Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.

Anger and Jealousy: Psalm 79:5 ⁵ How long, O LORD? Will You be angry forever? Will Your jealousy burn like fire?

Wrath: Micah 5:15 ¹⁵ "And I will execute vengeance in anger and wrath On the nations which have not obeyed."

Forgiveness: Jeremiah 31:34 ³⁴ "They will not teach again, each man his neighbor and each man his brother, saying, 'Know the LORD,' for they will all know Me, from the least of them to the greatest of them," declares the LORD, "for I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin I will remember no more."

God is Living

1 Thessalonians 1:9 ⁹ For they themselves report about us what kind of a reception we had with you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve a living and true God,

John 5:26 ²⁶ "For just as the Father has life in Himself, even so He gave to the Son also to have life in Himself;

Psalm 42:2 ² My soul thirsts for God, for the living God;

Psalm 84:2 ² My soul longed and even yearned for the courts of the LORD; My heart and my flesh sing for joy to the living God.

God is the only being that has life in-and-of himself. He is the only "self-existing" being!

You don't have a dead God. Your God is living; He's here with you; He's there with you; He's everywhere. He has everything always for everyone under control. He never has to go to a "Plan B". He never says "Ooops." He is a living and real and inescapable God!

Think about this:

Buddha (Buddhism), Allah (Islam), Joseph Smith (Mormonism), Mary (RC), the Popes through the ages (RC), Muhammed, Mary Baker Eddy (Christian Science), Moses (Judaism), Charles Taze Russel (Jehovah's Witnesses), Anton LaVey (Satanism) are all DEAD, in the grave, and in torment under the judgment of God in Hell. But not God—He is alive! Jesus Christ conquered death! He is alive from the grave! He lives forever!

CONCLUSION: All this leads us to conclude that God is, in fact, a living, personal, invisible Spirit!

IV. The Distinctiveness (the “Otherness”) of God Common Misconceptions

God is like us

God needs us

God created us to fill a gap in his ‘heart’

God loves us too much to punish our sin

God is uninterested in what we are doing

God has no time for us

God isn’t powerful enough to deal with “all my problems.”

Biblical Truth

The core idea of God’s holiness is that of: separateness. God is totally separate, other, distinct, lofty, transcendent, majestic, pure!

“The concept of holiness connotes the essential nature that belongs to the sphere of God’s being or activity and that is distinct from the common or profane (=impure)” (New International Dictionary of OT Theology and Exegesis, 3:879).

Leviticus 10:9-11⁹ "Do not drink wine or strong drink, neither you nor your sons with you, when you come into the tent of meeting, so that you will not die-- it is a perpetual statute throughout your generations--¹⁰ and so as to make a distinction between the holy and the profane, and between the unclean and the clean,¹¹ and so as to teach the sons of Israel all the statutes which the LORD has spoken to them through Moses."

Two meanings of God’s holiness in the Bible

Majesty Holiness

God is, in His being, totally different than anything or anyone else in the entire universe.

Isaiah 57:15 ¹⁵ For thus says the high and exalted One Who lives forever, whose name is Holy, "I dwell on a high and holy place, And also with the contrite and lowly of spirit In order to revive the spirit of the lowly And to revive the heart of the contrite.

Purity Holiness

God is, in His being, morally separate from and purer than anything else in the created realm.

Often in the Bible, the “holiness” of God includes the idea of God being separated from sin or anything that is impure or defiled.

Leviticus 11:44 ⁴⁴ 'For I am the LORD your God. Consecrate yourselves therefore, and be holy, for I am holy. And you shall not make yourselves unclean with any of the swarming things that swarm on the earth.

1 Peter 1:15-16 ¹⁵ but like the Holy One who called you, be holy yourselves also in all your behavior; ¹⁶ because it is written, "YOU SHALL BE HOLY, FOR I AM HOLY."

The Trinity—God in Three Persons

Here are 3 axioms all of which are true at the same time!

This is where we get into the realm of ‘paradox’—seeming contradictions that don’t seem to make sense in our mind, yet the Bible portrays both truths as correct (for example: the Bible says that Jesus is MAN and that Jesus is GOD; our little and imperfect minds cannot understand how these can both be true at the same time—but they ARE!).

Axiom #1 – God is three persons.

When we talk about God being three “persons” we are not referring to human beings—like YOU and ME.

The fact that God is three persons means that the Father is not the Son; they are distinct. It also means the Father is not the Holy Spirit, but they are distinct persons.

These are natures within the Godhead that are distinct—yet there is still one God!

“The big differences between Christian faith and any kind of philosophical theology is that Christians claim to know God, the ultimate reality, personally. The belief that God is a personal being is one which is shared with other monotheistic religions, especially Judaism and Islam, but Christianity is fundamentally different from them in that it claims that the one God in whom we all believe is known to us not as one, but as three distinct persons” (Gerald Bray).

Some may think the Holy Spirit is merely a “force” or a “power” or a “thing.” But the New Testament is very different. He has a unique and personable relationship in the Godhead.

1 Corinthians 12:4-6⁴ Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit.⁵ And there are varieties of ministries, and the same Lord.⁶ There are varieties of effects, but the same God who works all things in all persons.

2 Corinthians 13:14¹⁴ The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

b. Axiom #2 – Each person is fully God.

i. The Father is God

John 6:27²⁷ "Do not work for the food which perishes, but for the food which endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you, for on Him the Father, God, has set His seal."

Genesis 1:1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth

The Son is God

John 1:1-4, 14 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.² He was in the beginning with God.³ All things came into being through Him, and apart from Him nothing came into being that has come into being.⁴ In Him was life, and the life was the Light of men... ¹⁴ And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us, and we saw His glory, glory as of the only begotten from the Father, full of grace and truth.

John 20:27-28 ²⁷ Then He said to Thomas, "Reach here with your finger, and see My hands; and reach here your hand and put it into My side; and do not be unbelieving, but believing." ²⁸ Thomas answered and said to Him, "My Lord and my God!"

Titus 2:13 ¹³ looking for the blessed hope and the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Christ Jesus, Hebrews 1:8 But of the Son [God says], "Your throne, O God, is forever and ever, And the righteous scepter is the scepter of His kingdom.

iii. The Holy Spirit is God

Matthew 28:19 ¹⁹ "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit,

2 Corinthians 13:14 ¹⁴ The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

1 Corinthians 2:10-11 ⁰ For to us God revealed them through the Spirit; for the Spirit searches all things, even the depths of God. ¹¹ For who among men knows the thoughts of a man except the spirit of the man which is in him? Even so the thoughts of God no one knows except the Spirit of God.

1 Corinthians 3:16 ¹⁶ Do you not know that you are a temple of God and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?

If, we were to stop here, with these two facts ([1] that God is three persons; and [2] that each person is fully God) there would be no logical problem at all in fitting them together—for the OBVIOUS solution would be that there are three Gods. The Father is fully God; the Son is fully God; the Spirit is fully God. We would have a system where there are three "equally divine beings." This would then be called "polytheism" ('many gods') or "tritheism ('three gods'). BUT

THIS IS VERY FAR FROM WHAT THE BIBLE TEACHES!

c. Axiom #3 – There is only one God.

Recognize that Scripture is overwhelmingly clear that there is One and only One God.

“The three different persons of the Trinity (=Father, Son, and Spirit) are not only one in purpose and in agreement on what they think, but they are one in essence, one in their essential nature. In other words, God is only one being. There are not three Gods. There is only one God” (Wayne Grudem, Systematic Theology, 238).

Deuteronomy 6:4-5 ⁴ "Hear, O Israel! The LORD is our God, the LORD is one! ⁵ "You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might.

Exodus 15:11 ¹¹ "Who is like You among the gods, O LORD? Who is like You, majestic in holiness, Awesome in praises, working wonders?

1 Kings 8:60 ⁶⁰ so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD is God; there is no one else.

Isaiah 45:5-6 ⁵ "I am the LORD, and there is no other; Besides Me there is no God. I will gird you, though you have not known Me; ⁶ That men may know from the rising to the setting of the sun That there is no one besides Me. I am the LORD, and there is no other,

1 Timothy 2:5 ⁵ For there is one God, and one mediator also between God and men, the man Christ Jesus,

1 Corinthians 8:6 ⁶ yet for us there is but one God, the Father, from whom are all things and we exist for Him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we exist through Him.

Therefore, it is absolutely impossible to get around the clear teaching of Scripture that there is ONE and only ONE God.

Remember we are diving deep into the realm of the “personhood” of God. This is an infinitely deep area of study and we will never get to the bottom of ALL the truths that are contained here.

At the end of the day, we do well to study, and study, and think, and think, and believe, and believe, but we must remember that the Bible declares the truths that the Father is God, the Son is God, the Holy Spirit is God, yet there is only one God—this is believed by faith!

Application For This Week (James 1:23–25):

Consider how well you think you really know God. How can you know Him more?

For a few days this week, take about 30 minutes and go for a walk, go outside, and see nature, creation, and the sky and praise God for his revelation to you in nature.

Try to sit and comprehend the reality that all of God fills every space and consider how that ought to change the way you do things. God is always there next to you as you live life.

VI. The Character of God

Introduction

i. An Attribute of God

“The attributes of God are those distinguishing characteristics of the divine nature which are inseparable from the idea of God” (Strong).

“A divine attribute is what we know to be true of God from His revelation about Himself” (Greg Behle).

How God reveals Himself are called “attributes”—the self-disclosure of God.

Attributes are not total qualities. In other words, an attribute is not an individual part of God.

ii. How to observe the attributes of God.

Often we have to understand God by talking about what God is not. God is not bound by time, God did not have a beginning, God was not created, God cannot die. The reason we must do this is because we are sinners and know sin and are imperfect. Therefore, for us to try to understand more of God and His perfect character, we have to talk about who/what God is not.

Incommunicable Attributes

Meaning of “Incommunicable” attributes:

When we talk about incommunicable attributes we refer to those attributes of God which we as human beings cannot imitate and model at all.

List of Attributes:

Aseity— God depends on nothing else for existence, “but has eternally existed w/o any external or prior cause.”

Latin: a = from + sei = himself

God depends on nothing else for existence, but has eternally existed without any external or prior cause

John 5:26 ²⁶ "For just as the Father has life in Himself, even so He gave to the Son also to have life in Himself;

Psalm 36:99 For with You is the fountain of life; In Your light we see light

Exodus 3:14 14 God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM"; and He said, "Thus you shall say to the sons of Israel, 'I AM has sent me to you.'"

Revelation 1:8 ⁸ "I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, "who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty."

John 8:58 ⁵⁸ Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, before Abraham was born, I am."

This also means that God has no needs—he is totally self-sufficient (Frame, 29).

Because God depends on no one or nothing for existence, we ought to humbly bow to the awesome power and majesty of God!

Omnipresence— God is present in the totality of his being every place in space.

Latin: omni = all + presence = presence

1 Kings 8:27 ²⁷ "But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold, heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain You, how much less this house which I have built!

Psalm 139:7-8 ⁷ Where can I go from Your Spirit? Or where can I flee from Your presence? ⁸ If I ascend to heaven, You are there; If I make my bed in Sheol, behold, You are there.

Isaiah 66:1 Thus says the LORD, "Heaven is My throne and the earth is My footstool. Where then is a house you could build for Me? And where is a place that I may rest?"

Hard Questions Some People Ask:

How can God fill any space since He doesn't have a body?

God is not present physically in space—but He is present spiritually.

God is really here—just not physically here.

Is God present in hell?

Yes, he certainly is.

Psalm 139:8 ⁸ If I ascend to heaven, You are there; If I make my bed in Sheol, behold, You are there.

Revelation 14:9-11 ⁹ Then another angel, a third one, followed them, saying with a loud voice, "If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand, ¹⁰ he also will drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is mixed in full strength in the cup of His anger; and he will be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb. ¹¹ "And the smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever; they have no rest day and night, those who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name."

If God is present everywhere, then why does the Bible say that God dwells in heaven?

To speak of God as present in heaven is primarily to speak of his kingship, control, and exaltation in heaven.

Certainly God is present everywhere—but when we talk about God being in heaven, that phrase “in heaven” inherently contains the idea of “power” and “sovereignty” and “control.”

Omniscience— God is infinite in knowledge. He knows Himself and all other things perfectly from all eternity, whether they be actual or merely possible, whether they be past, present, or future.

God knows Himself perfectly.

God knows all existing things perfectly.

God knows all things possible.

God knows all the future.

Psalm 147:5 ⁵ Great is our Lord and abundant in strength; His understanding is infinite.

John 21:17 ¹⁷ He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me?" Peter was grieved because He said to him the third time, "Do you love Me?" And he said to Him, "Lord, You know all things; You know that I love You." Jesus said to him, "Tend My sheep.

Hebrews 4:12-13 ¹² For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing as far as the division of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. ¹³ And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are open and laid bare to the eyes of Him with whom we have to do.

1 John 3:20 God is greater than our heart and knows all things.

Omnipotence— God is all-powerful and able to do whatever He decides to do.

Job 42:2 ² "I know that You can do all things, And that no purpose of Yours can be thwarted.

Matthew 19:26 ²⁶ And looking at them Jesus said to them, "With people this is impossible, but with God all things are possible."

There are some things God cannot do:

God cannot do anything that is out of harmony with his perfections.

That means that God cannot promise to do something and then fail to do it.

If he tells you He'll forgive you if you repent of sins, then He will certainly do it. It is impossible for Him to not do it.

God cannot do anything that is contrary to His nature as God. a. God cannot approve evil.

Habakkuk 1:13 ¹³ Your eyes are too pure to approve evil, And You can not look on wickedness with favor.

Job 13:16 ¹⁶ "This also will be my salvation, For a godless man may not come before His presence.

b. God cannot deny His promises

2 Timothy 2:13 ¹³ If we are faithless, He remains faithful, for He cannot deny Himself.

c. God cannot lie

Titus 1:2 ² in the hope of eternal life, which God, who cannot lie, promised long ages ago,

God cannot do things which are absurd or self-contradictory (like: make square circles, make a rock too big that He cannot move, etc.).

God cannot do things inappropriate to his nature as God, like buying shoes or celebrating his birthday (John Frame, 26).

Immutability— God is unchangeable in his essence, attributes, consciousness, and will.

Classical theology has believed that God does not and can not change. Malachi 3:6 ⁶ "For I, the LORD, do not change;

James 1:17 ¹⁷ Every good thing given and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shifting shadow.

There are many who believe that God can and does change, though.

The Bible does speak of God “changing His mind” sometimes.

Jonah 3:10 (NLT)¹⁰ When God saw what they had done and how they had put a stop to their evil ways, he changed his mind and did not carry out the destruction he had threatened.

Yet some believe—this is known as Process Theology—that God is constantly changing and learning and that God is drastically different today than He was 1,000 years ago.

This is erroneous and must be considered unbiblical!

Impassibility—God is incapable of suffering or feeling any emotions whatsoever.

This is debated. And good people are on both sides.

Some say that God does NOT experience emotions.

Others say that God can and does experience emotions.

I believe that God can and does experience emotions (see above).

For example, love, joy, forgiveness, sorrow, and jealousy are all emotions.

And, if Jesus is the perfect revelation of who God is, and he truly suffered, then God must suffer.

“Certainly, God cannot suffer any loss of his attributes or divine nature … but Jesus Christ, the second person of the Trinity, certainly did suffer as he died on the cross for us. And his Father certainly suffered when he gave up his only Son for us all (Rom 8:32)” (Frame, 29).

Eternality—God has no beginning or end. He transcends all time and space limitations.

GOD

MAN  PHYSICAL WORLD

Psalm 102:27 ²⁷ "But You are the same, And Your years will not come to an end.

Genesis 1:1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

Psalm 90:1-2 Lord, You have been our dwelling place in all generations. ² Before the mountains were born Or You gave birth to the earth and the world, Even from everlasting to everlasting, You are God.

God sees the beginning and the end of everything. God knew you before you were ever thought of!

And God knows your future—and every detail of it! God knows how the end of the trial and hardship you're currently going through will end up. God has it all worked out! "God is free from the limitations that we experience in time. We are limited by our beginning and end; God is not. We are limited by change; God is not. We are ignorant of the past and future; God sees all times with equal vividness. We are frustrated, because time passes too quickly for us to complete our tasks or so slowly that we become bored; but God is never limited in these ways: a day with him is as a thousand years and vice versa" (John Frame, 27).

Sovereignty—God is in absolute control of everything. (This will be further elaborated on below.)

Essentially, the sovereignty of God means that God actively does what He wants, when He wants, where He wants, with whom He wants, how he wants at all times.

God is in control of absolutely everything—nothing at all is left out!

Psalm 103:19 ¹⁹ The LORD has established His throne in the heavens, And His sovereignty rules over all.

Psalm 115:3 ³ But our God is in the heavens; He does whatever He pleases.

Psalm 93:1 The LORD reigns, He is clothed with majesty;

c. Communicable Attributes

Meaning of “communicable” attributes:

When we talk about God’s “communicable” attributes we mean those attributes which have a moral sense to them.

These are attributes that we can emulate—albeit imperfectly. And we should—and we’re required!—to emulate them in our Christian lives.

Ephesians 5:1-2 Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children; ² and walk in love, just as Christ also loved you and gave Himself up for us,

Colossians 3:13 ¹³ bearing with one another, and forgiving each other, whoever has a complaint against anyone; just as the Lord forgave you, so also should you.

And, of course, the greatest One to observe in seeing “how” these attributes are lived out is none other than Jesus Christ! Read the Gospels. See how he loved, forgave, had mercy, was patient, etc.

List of Attributes:

Righteousness— God always acts in accordance with what is right and is himself the final standard of what is right.

Deuteronomy 32:4 ⁴ "The Rock! His work is perfect, For all His ways are just; A God of faithfulness and without injustice, Righteous and upright is He.

Psalm 145:17 ¹⁷ The LORD is righteous in all His ways And kind in all His deeds.

This means that God Himself is the final standard for determining whether something is right or wrong.

“Righteousness and justice are … legal terms, indicating that God’s conduct measures up to the highest standards—his own, of course!—of fairness and equity” (John Frame, Salvation Belongs to the Lord, 23).

God cannot do anything that is NOT right. He cannot tolerate a sin. He cannot overlook even one sin on that final judgment day. He must do that which is right and He will do that which is right.

Justice— God's official righteousness in that He requires other moral agents to adhere to His standard.

This includes punitive justice. This means that God will judge all sin because sin deserves to be punished.

As the right and just judge, God Almighty will punish each and every sin that has ever been committed.

This also includes remunerative justice. This means that God will reward all righteousness and holy actions.

Micah 6:8 ⁸ He has told you, O man, what is good; And what does the LORD require of you But to do justice, to love kindness, And to walk humbly with your God?

As we live our Christian lives, we are told by God, through the prophet Micah, to do (live, work, act) justly!

Very simply, for application, whatever God demands from you, you must do just as He says and adhere to His standard. We have to come to God and obey God on his terms, not our terms! This, is living according to God's standard and living justly.

Truth—God Himself is Truth and is Himself the revelation of truth.

This includes 3 aspects:

a. Trueness

God alone is authentically God.

Isaiah 45:5 "I am the LORD, and there is no other; Besides Me there is no God.

This means there is no other God; every other thing/person people may worship is a false God and, really, no god at all!

Why wouldn't you want and long to worship the true God?

b. Truthfulness

God's knowledge and fairness conform to His perfect character.

Titus 1:2² in the hope of eternal life, which God, who cannot lie, promised long ages ago,

God cannot lie! Every single promise that God has ever vowed will come to pass—it must happen. It cannot not happen. God must be true to His nature and if He makes a promise, His very faithful and right, and truthful character demands that He follow through with it.

c. Faithfulness

All that God is and tells us is NOT deceptive—at all!

1 Thessalonians 5:24²⁴ Faithful is He who calls you, and He also will bring it to pass.

1 John 1:9⁹ If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Love—God’s love means that God eternally gives of himself to others.

“That in God which moves Him to give Himself and His gifts spontaneously, voluntarily, righteously, and eternally, for the good of personal beings, regardless of their merit or response” (Alva McClain).

Who are the objects of God’s Love?

1. Jesus Christ

John 3:35³⁵ “The Father loves the Son and has given all things into His hand.

John 15:9⁹ “Just as the Father has loved Me, I have also loved you; abide in My love.

This is the most intimate love that has ever existed, namely, the perfect love within the Godhead/Trinity.

Believers (the “Elect”)

NOTE: God is the One who initiates this love. We don’t love God first. We have absolutely NO regard for God. But while we were totally dead in sin, wandering from God, hating God, fleeing from everything Godly, God sovereignly chose to place his electing and saving love upon us. We did nothing to receive or deserve this love.

John 14:21 ²¹ "He who has My commandments and keeps them is the one who loves Me; and he who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and will disclose Myself to him."

John 14:23 ²³ Jesus answered and said to him, "If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word; and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our abode with him.

1 John 3:1 See how great a love the Father has bestowed on us, that we would be called children of God; and such we are. For this reason the world does not know us, because it did not know Him.

1 John 4:19 ¹⁹ We love, because He first loved us.

Romans 5:8 ⁸ But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

God loves all true believers with a special love that is distinct from all unbelievers in the world. There is a special love that God imparts and has for His own children because they are "sons" and adopted into the family of God with God as the Loving Father.

Israel

Hosea 11:1 When Israel was a youth I loved him, And out of Egypt I called My son.

1 Kings 10:9 ⁹ "Blessed be the LORD your God who delighted in you to set you on the throne of Israel; because the LORD loved Israel forever, therefore He made you king, to do justice and righteousness."

Jeremiah 31:3-4 The LORD appeared to him from afar, saying, "I have loved you with an everlasting love; Therefore I have drawn you with lovingkindness. ⁴ "Again I will build you and you will be rebuilt, O virgin of Israel!"

Even when Israel was a small, insignificant, sinful, rebellious nation, God sovereignly chose to love them. God initiated the love for Israel.

4. The unbelieving World

John 3:16 ¹⁶ "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life.

Does God love all people equally?

Though God loves the “world” (John 3:16) and wishes that all men might be saved (1 Tim 2:4), God does not, and cannot love the unbelieving, non-Christian, rebellious “world” with the same unconditional love with which He loves believing, saved, forgiven Christians.

For example, God loves His own character and faithfulness more than He loves the wicked unbelievers. Though He loves all people generally (even the wicked!), he still must be faithful to His character and destroy the impenitent (those who do not repent) in eternal hell forever! This is, in reality, the greatest demonstration of His love.

APPLICATION: You are commanded to love others just as you have been loved by God!

Unconditional – God promises to love his children (“believers”) unconditionally (cf. Romans 8:35ff).

Unilateral – God will keep loving us even if we do not love him reciprocally (cf. Romans 5:8).

Unlimited – God loves us without limit—to the uttermost! (John 13:1).

Sacrificially – God loves us so much that He gave up His own very dear Son for YOU! (this is the greatest sacrifice that has ever, or will ever, be given.) (cf. 2 Corinthians 8:9).

Ephesians 5:1-2 Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children; ² and walk in love, just as Christ also loved you and gave Himself up for us, John 15:12 ¹² "This is My commandment, that you love one another, just as I have loved you.

Grace—The grace of God is God's goodness manifested toward the ill-deserving. It is unmerited favor.

Very simply, grace is unmerited favor.

The key here is the “recipient”—that is, the one who is receiving grace, because he does not deserve it.

Grace is not just God stooping down and doing something nice for someone, but doing something nice for someone that doesn't deserve it.

Psalm 145:8 ⁸ The LORD is gracious and merciful; Slow to anger and great in lovingkindness.

Exodus 34:6 ⁶ Then the LORD passed by in front of him and proclaimed, "The LORD, the LORD God, compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in lovingkindness and truth;

There are 2 categories of God's grace:

Common Grace – God's gracious activity immediately or through secondary causation by which He sustains creation, restrains evil, enables excellence in the arts and sciences, and maintains a decent and orderly society.

Matthew 5:45 ⁴⁵ so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven; for He causes His sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous.

Everything that God does for all humans falls into this category: every single breath of life, the sun for warmth and light, a house, a bed, food, water, family, laughing, relationships, health, ability to go to school, ability to think, smile, joy, excitement...just to name a few!

Everyone has these characteristics (even nonbelievers)—this, then, is the definition of God's common grace.

Special Grace – God's grace extended to mankind for salvation and sanctification.

Titus 2:11-14 11 For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all men, 12 instructing us to deny ungodliness and worldly desires and to live sensibly, righteously and godly in the present age,¹³ looking for the blessed hope and the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Christ Jesus,¹⁴ who gave Himself for us to redeem us from every lawless deed, and to purify for Himself a people for His own possession, zealous for good deeds.

This is sanctifying grace (or transforming grace) that transforms us gradually into the image of Christ as we grow in him.

Special grace is God's grace given only to believers which enables them to believe, be saved, repent, walk in holiness and Christlikeness. No one will ever enter heaven without receiving God's special grace.

Can you do anything to earn/receive God's special grace?

NO! This is the kind of sovereign grace that God elects and sovereignly chooses to give to SOME people (i.e. this is the doctrine of election or predestination). God chooses His own children out of a sea of human beings who are damned to hell. God then, gives to them special grace.

Mercy— Mercy is God's goodness manifested toward those who are in misery or distress.

Psalm 86:15¹⁵ But You, O Lord, are a God merciful and gracious, Slow to anger and abundant in lovingkindness and truth.

James 5:11 the Lord is full of compassion and is merciful.

So how do you distinguish between grace and mercy?

Grace is emphasis on the ill-deserving (those who do NOT deserve heaven) whereas mercy is emphasis on those who are in distress (those who are totally deserving of hell).

God demonstrates His sovereign mercy by:

1. Physical Deliverance

Philippians 2:27²⁷ For indeed he was sick to the point of death, but God had mercy on him, and not on him only but also on me, so that I would not have sorrow upon sorrow.

2. Spiritual Salvation

Ephesians 2:4-5 ⁴ But God, being rich in mercy, because of His great love with which He loved us, ⁵ even when we were dead in our transgressions, made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved),

Election

Romans 9:18 ¹⁸ So then He has mercy on whom He desires, and He hardens whom He desires.

Forgiveness of Sins

Psalm 51:1 Be gracious to me, O God, according to Your lovingkindness; According to the greatness of Your compassion blot out my transgressions.

Holiness—God's holiness is His self-affirming purity. . . God eternally wills and maintains his own moral excellence.

God is perfectly holy and pure and that is what we as believers ought to strive for.

Leviticus 11:44 ⁴⁴ 'For I am the LORD your God. Consecrate yourselves therefore, and be holy, for I am holy (cf. 11:45; 19:2; 20:7, 26).

1 Peter 1:14-16 ⁴ As obedient children, do not be conformed to the former lusts which were yours in your ignorance, ¹⁵ but like the Holy One who called you, be holy yourselves also in all your behavior; ¹⁶ because it is written, "YOU SHALL BE HOLY, FOR I AM HOLY."

2 Corinthians 7:1 Therefore, having these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

It ought to be your desire, as a believer in Jesus Christ, to have absolute purity in life—in thoughts, in words, in all deeds.

Only those who are perfectly pure and perfectly holy will be able to dwell with God forever in heaven.

Does your life characterize and evidence fruits of holiness? Are you different than the world? Or are you living just as the non-Christian world would live?

1 Thessalonians 3:11-13 ¹¹ Now may our God and Father Himself and Jesus our Lord direct our way to you; ¹² and may the Lord cause you to increase and abound in love for one another, and for all people, just as we also do for you; ¹³ so that He may establish your hearts without blame in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all His saints.

Forgiveness—God's forgiveness is His unconditional, unrelenting, unilateral, and faithful cleansing whereby he refuses to hold sins against His own children any longer.

God is a forgiving God:

Psalm 32:5 ⁵ I acknowledged my sin to You, And my iniquity I did not hide; I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD"; And You forgave the guilt of my sin.

Psalm 85:2 ² You forgave the iniquity of Your people; You covered all their sin. Selah.

Psalm 86:5 ⁵ For You, Lord, are good, and ready to forgive, And abundant in lovingkindness to all who call upon You.

Just as God has forgiven you, so you must also forgive others:

Colossians 3:13 ¹³ bearing with one another, and forgiving each other, whoever has a complaint against anyone; just as the Lord forgave you, so also should you.

Matthew 18:35 ³⁵ "My heavenly Father will also do the same to you, if each of you does not forgive his brother from your heart."

Is there anyone in your life that you need to forgive? Even if they are NOT a Christian, you still must forgive them. If you have any unforgiveness in your heart, God will not hear your prayers!

Proverbs 21:13 ¹³ He who shuts his ear to the cry of the poor Will also cry himself and not be answered.

Matthew 5:23-24 ²³ "Therefore if you are presenting your offering at the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your offering there before the altar and go; first be reconciled to your brother, and then come and present your offering.

Biblical forgiveness always promises never to bring up the sin again to:

Me (the one sinned against)

You (the one who committed the sin)

Others (those who had nothing to do with the sin)

Biblical forgiveness is forgiving the person in full with no strings attached. The phrase: "but remember when you..." must FOREVER be removed from the Christian's vocabulary.

Jealousy—God continually seeks to protect His own honor at all costs.

God is so jealous that He cannot and will not allow His rightful glory and honor to be given to another.

For example: if you are dating someone and another person tries to take your "significant other" away by their charm, good looks, talent, and money, you would be jealous over your friend because you don't want anyone else to take him/her away. So it is with God's jealousy for His own glory!

Isaiah 42:8 ⁸ "I am the LORD, that is My name; I will not give My glory to another, Nor My praise to graven images.

Isaiah 48:11 ¹¹ "For My own sake, for My own sake, I will act; For how can My name be profaned? And My glory I will not give to another.

Exodus 20:5 ⁵ "You shall not worship them or serve them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God,

Exodus 34:14 you shall not worship any other god, for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God—

We ought to recognize that God is a jealous God for His own glory and honor. We must never take away any of that glory or honor and try to attribute it to ourselves! How prideful that would be!

Therefore, because God is jealous, He demands all your affections; all your love; all your desires; all your heart!

Wisdom—God always chooses the best goals and the best means to attain those goals.

This means that all complaining is a SIN because complaining is, in reality, our wicked thoughts to God about how HE could have done something better.

Do you ever complain about your family? Parents? Friends? Jobless state of being? Grades in school? Lack of money?

Instead, work hard, trust God, and know that God is always working out everything according to His perfect plan.

Wisdom is a heightened form of knowledge that understands the deep significance of something and its practical relevance.

Psalm 104:24 ²⁴ O LORD, how many are Your works! In wisdom You have made them all; The earth is full of Your possessions.

Psalm 136:5 ⁵ To Him who made the heavens with skill, For His lovingkindness is everlasting;

Romans 11:33 ³³ Oh, the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments and unfathomable His ways!

Wisdom is knowledge in depth, knowledge going to work. It could even be translated “skill.”

We are commanded to grow in our wisdom and understanding in order to know God better and live for Him more fully.

Proverbs 2:2-5 ² Make your ear attentive to wisdom, Incline your heart to understanding; ³ For if you cry for discernment, Lift your voice for understanding; ⁴ If you seek her as silver And search for her as for hidden treasures; ⁵ Then you will discern the fear of the LORD And discover the knowledge of God.

VII. The Sovereignty of God

Definition: God's exercise of power over all of His creation.

God's sovereignty means that He is the king (or "Sovereign") over all that He has made.

God's sovereignty is His ability to do what He wants, when He wants, where He wants, with whom He wants, all the time. When we talk about God being the KING, we talk about God's sovereignty.

Psalm 103:19 ¹⁹ The LORD has established His throne in the heavens, And His sovereignty rules over all.

Psalm 93:1-2 The LORD reigns, He is clothed with majesty; The LORD has clothed and girded Himself with strength; Indeed, the world is firmly established, it will not be moved. ² Your throne is established from of old; You are from everlasting.

If he commands something to be done—then it'll certainly be done!

Psalm 33:9 ⁹ For He spoke, and it was done; He commanded, and it stood fast.

Extent of God's Sovereignty:

God's sovereignty has absolutely NO limits. God is the reigning King and ruler over everything! To say it negatively, there is nothing that is NOT under God's active control.

Psalm 99:1-2 The LORD reigns, let the peoples tremble; He is enthroned above the cherubim, let the earth shake! ² The LORD is great in Zion, And He is exalted above all the peoples.

1 Timothy 6:15 He who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords,

God is totally sovereign over:

Every cosmic thing – from the planet, to the stars, to the skies, to the clouds, to the sun, to the moon, to the billions of galaxies...

Every minute detail – from the smallest leaf that falls in the highest tree on Mt. Everest, to every single ocean wave in the middle of the Pacific and Atlantic oceans, to every single snowflake that falls in the heart of Northern Russia, to every single fish that swims in the depths of every ocean...

Every big event – from the electing of a new president over the USA, to every World War, to a plane crashing into 2 huge towers in New York City on 9-11-01...

Every good thing – from the cool breeze that cools you off after playing a game outside, to the ability to make money and go to the store and buy food, to meeting someone new and building a close and life-long friendship...

God's Sovereignty in Salvation:

That God is sovereign over salvation means that God is fully in charge of who is saved and who is not saved. That it is, ultimately, a matter totally up to God! We can never do anything to change, thwart, or alter His will.

NOTE: If God wants someone saved—then God will save that person. If God does NOT sovereignly elect a person to be saved—then that person will NOT be saved!

Consider the following Logical (and biblical!) Formula:

Because all human beings are SO sinful and completely unable to save themselves...

And because God unconditionally elected, predestined, and chose before the worlds ever began those whom He wanted to save...

And because Jesus Christ only died for those who would believe (that means, Jesus died only for believers—not for every single person who has ever lived!)...

And because of that fact that when God wants to save someone, He will certainly save them. NO human being can ever say NO and thwart or change God's will. If God wants to save someone, he will certainly be saved!

And because those who are truly saved will persevere and be kept until heaven. That means that no true Christian can ever lose his/her salvation...

THEN: God MUST BE sovereign in all matters of salvation!

God is totally in control of your salvation. If you are saved, you are kept. If you are justified, you will be glorified. If you are redeemed, you will be perfected!

God is in total charge of your salvation. If you had any part in it whatsoever, then MAN would have a part to play in salvation and that is absolutely blasphemy!

Scriptural Proof:

If you are a Christian, then...

You are so dead and helpless in your sin that you cannot save yourself:

Romans 3:23 ²³ for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,

You were chosen by God because of His sheer grace:

Ephesians 1:5-6 ⁵ He predestined us to adoption as sons through Jesus Christ to Himself, according to the kind intention of His will, ⁶ to the praise of the glory of His grace,

2 Timothy 1:9 ⁹ who has saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and grace which was granted us in Christ Jesus from all eternity,

You did nothing and could do nothing to cause God's electing you. He chose you out of His sheer grace:

John 6:44 ⁴⁴ "No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draws him; and I will raise him up on the last day.

John 15:16 ¹⁶ "You did not choose Me but I chose you,

Your sins were forgiven in Jesus Christ if you believe:

Matthew 1:21 ²¹ "She will bear a Son; and you shall call His name Jesus, for He will save His people from their sins."

You were irresistibly drawn and saved when God called you to believe:

Romans 8:29-30 ²⁹ For those whom He foreknew, He also predestined to become conformed to the image of His Son, so that He would be the firstborn among many brethren; ³⁰ and these whom He predestined, He also called; and these whom He called, He also justified; and these whom He justified, He also glorified.

You were saved, sealed, and guaranteed eternal life when you believed:

Philippians 1:6 ⁶ For I am confident of this very thing, that He who began a good work in you will perfect it until the day of Christ Jesus.

Therefore, God is totally in control and sovereign over salvation. Everything that you are in Christ must be credited to God by His grace! Praise God for His work of grace in our lives in saving us!

So, why did He save us?

Romans 9:23 ²³ And He did so to make known the riches of His glory upon vessels of mercy, which He prepared beforehand for glory,

This is what we will marvel at for ages and ages to come in heaven...

Revelation 5:9 ⁹ And they sang a new song, saying, "Worthy are You to take the book and to break its seals; for You were slain, and purchased for God with Your blood men from every tribe and tongue and people and nation.

The sovereignty of God, then, is the most comforting of all doctrines for if God is sovereign over everything, then everything that happens in life—every single thing without exception!—comes to pass under the perfect, authoritative, and all-wise God!

VIII. The Providence of God

Definition: Providence is that continuous agency of God by which He makes all the events of the physical and moral universe fulfill the original design with which He created it.

"Providence is that continuous work of the triune God whereby He controls all things in the universe for the purpose of certainly bringing about the fulfillment of his own wise, loving, and perfect plan, as in ways consistent with the free moral agency of His creatures" (Alva McClain).

Providence explains the active control of God in every affair of everything in existence in order to bring about His sovereign and already decreed purposes.

God has absolute providence over everything.

How Providence Works:

God has a sovereign decree which certainly will come to pass.

God uses secondary causes (or "means") to bring about His sovereign purposes.

For example, when you meet someone and decide to get married, you don't just wake up one day and "poof"—you're married (some of you wish it was only that easy! ☺). Rather, God uses many secondary causes to bring about His sovereign and perfect purposes—how the two people meet, start dating, get engaged, get married, etc.

Application: This means that because God is the all-powerful King of the universe, that He has absolute control to do with your life whatever He wants to do. As you live your life, you are fulfilling God's perfect purposes.

i. Don't be anxious Luke 12:7 ⁷ "Indeed, the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Do not fear; you are more valuable than many sparrows.

ii. Remember the will of God

2 Corinthians 12:7 ⁷ Because of the surpassing greatness of the revelations, for this reason, to keep me from exalting myself, there was given me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me-- to keep me from exalting myself!

IX. The Creation Spoken into Existence by God

a. Definition of Biblical "Creationism": God, by a direct act, brought into being virtually instantaneously everything that is.

b. Two important tenets of Creationism:

i. The brevity ("shortness") of time involved. In other words, there are no millions of years or evolutionary processes here.

ii. The recency of what occurred at creation. In other words, this is a recent phenomenon and not something that happened billions of years ago.

God brought everything into being by a single act—His spoken word!

Genesis 1:1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

Psalm 33:6 ⁶ By the word of the LORD the heavens were made, And by the breath of His mouth all their host.

c. Theology of Creation:

i. God the Father as the Originator

1 Corinthians 8:6⁶ yet for us there is but one God, the Father, from whom are all things and we exist for Him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we exist through Him.

ii. God the Son as the Mediator

John 1:3³ All things came into being through Him, and apart from Him nothing came into being that has come into being.

iii. God the Spirit as the Executioner (the one who carried it out)

Genesis 1:2² The earth was formless and void, and darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was moving over the surface of the waters.

Revelation 4:11¹¹ "Worthy are You, our Lord and our God, to receive glory and honor and power; for You created all things, and because of Your will they existed, and were created."

Remember, God created everything out of nothing—ex nihilo (Latin for “out of nothing”)

Hebrews 11:3³ By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things which are visible.

3 important realities from Heb 11:3

All things are from God.

Creation was by the Word of God.

Material did NOT come from previous matter.

X. Miracles from God

Definition: A miracle is an unusually powerful work of God that amazes people, reveals God, and authenticates His revelation and revelation bearer.

Terminology: Often in the Bible, the words “signs” and “wonders” accompany passages that refer to miracles.

Hebrews 2:3-4³ how will we escape if we neglect so great a salvation? After it was at the first spoken through the Lord, it was confirmed to us by those who heard,⁴ God also testifying with them, both by signs and wonders and by various miracles and by gifts of the Holy Spirit according to His own will.

Characteristic of a miracle:

It is to reveal God.

It is to be spectacular.

It is to be undeniable.

It is uncommon (or rare).

It usually occurs in one of 4 special time periods of history:

Moses (Exodus, Numbers)

Elijah and Elisha (1-2 Kings)

Jesus and the Apostles (Gospels, and Acts)

Tribulation and Millennial Kingdom (Revelation)

The Purpose of Miracles in the Bible

First, to introduce more biblical revelation (that is, to give more revelation from God to His people).

Second, to accredit and validate the message and messenger sent from God to His people.

What about many miracles today (magic, black magic, etc.)?

Oftentimes, they are controlled and executed by demons.

It is possible for demons to do miracles; this was exemplified in the gospels.

Further questions:

Could miracles happen today

Sure—because God exists. And God can do a miracle if He so chooses.

Is it likely that miracles would happen/occur today (or regularly)?

No, because God has given all the revelation of Himself that He thought was sufficient and has no need to do miraculous signs to validate his message and give further revelation.

What about miracles of people healing from sickness?

Oftentimes, these may be explained “medically” and “scientifically”. And, frankly, God still answers prayer and is able to heal people (James 5).

What about all the miracles that will happen in the “end times”?

Scripture shows that miracles will certainly be evident in the Tribulation period by the Antichrist and the false prophet as well as the 144,000 Jewish believers!

Why is the modern emphasis on miracles dangerous?

Because God no where guarantees that He will accomplish miracles for US today—nowhere! Also, many people seek miracles and God to “speak to them” and show them “miraculous signs” which is seeking God to reveal Himself outside of Scripture.

Scripture is the only sufficient source for finding out about God.

Application For This Week (James 1:23–25):

Having learned about God and who He is, how should this impact your prayers?

How should your knowledge of God and His character change the way you live, the way you think, the way you talk, the places you go?

Now that you learned about the Sovereignty of God, how should this change the way you think about life, the things that happen to you, and everything that you see?

When you go outside, consider that God, by His awesome and powerful Word, spoke that into existence! Worship Him! Bow before Him!

Do you ever seek for a miracle from God to “show Himself to you?” God has shown himself to you already in His Word—the Bible! Read it and learn about Him.

4. THE PERSON OF JESUS CHRIST, WORK OF CHRIST

The Importance of Jesus

Introduction:

“JESUS OF NAZARETH. No other name has inspired greater devotion, evoked greater reverence, or ignited greater controversy. For 2000 years, the controversy over Christ has continued to rage without let up. Today, everyone has an opinion about Jesus, and these opinions range from the traditional to the novel to the heretical” —Douglas Groothius, Jesus in an Age of Controversy, 7.

“Since Christ said that the world would hate Him, we can be quite sure that when the world loves Him it is because they have made Him into something He is not” —Erwin Lutzer, Christ Among Other Gods, 23.

Necessity:

It is necessary to study the person of Jesus Christ because everyone everywhere has some kind of thought about who Jesus is.

Undeniable:

That some claim that Jesus’ claims are radical, life-altering, and eternally significant warrants that we study and understand who Jesus is and what He is all about.

It’s undeniable. He was a historical figure. No one (who knows anything!) doubts this!

Controversial:

Jesus is controversial. He is a part of Christianity, Roman Catholicism, Islam, Judaism, Mormonism, Jehovah’s Witnesses, Christian Science, Greek Orthodox, Russian Orthodox, and a host of others... Therefore, it is understandable that Jesus would be a controversial person.

Remember: Since we believe that the Bible is THE ultimate source for understanding who Jesus is and what He has done, the Bible MUST give the final say. The Bible has more authority than our ideas, thoughts, philosophies, rationalities, and mystical visions. Therefore, let us proceed with the Bible open to help us understand the absolute truth regarding the person of Jesus.

Who is Jesus?

a. His Deity—The Godhood of Jesus

The Pre-Existence of Jesus

The pre-existence of Jesus simply means that Jesus has always existed as God from all eternity past even before He entered into the world in human form.

Note the diagrams below:

Jesus as the second person of the Triune God has always existed. In other words, when talking about the “Godhood” (=deity) of Jesus, this simply means that Jesus never had a beginning or a starting point.

The Attributes of Jesus that are Equated with God

Omniscience

Luke 11:16-17 ¹⁶ Others, to test Him, were demanding of Him a sign from heaven. ¹⁷ But He knew their thoughts and said to them...

John 16:29-30 ²⁹ His disciples said, "Lo, now You are speaking plainly and are not using a figure of speech. ³⁰ "Now we know that You know all things, and have no need for anyone to question You; by this we believe that You came from God."

Matthew 9:4 ⁴ And Jesus knowing their thoughts said, "Why are you thinking evil in your hearts?

Mark 2:8⁸ Immediately Jesus, aware in His spirit that they were reasoning that way within themselves, said to them, "Why are you reasoning about these things in your hearts?

Omnipresence

Matthew 28:20²⁰ teaching them to observe all that I commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age."

Forgives Sins

Matthew 9:2-3² And they brought to Him a paralytic lying on a bed. Seeing their faith, Jesus said to the paralytic, "Take courage, son; your sins are forgiven."³ And some of the scribes said to themselves, "This fellow blasphemers."

Matthew 9:5-6⁵ "Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up, and walk'? "⁶ "But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins"-- then He said to the paralytic, "Get up, pick up your bed and go home."

Luke 7:48⁴⁸ Then He said to her, "Your sins have been forgiven."

4. Knows Men's Hearts

Luke 6:8⁸ But He knew what they were thinking, and He said to the man with the withered hand, "Get up and come forward!" And he got up and came forward.

John 6:6⁶ This He was saying to test him, for He Himself knew what He was intending to do. Receives Worship

Matthew 14:32-33² When they got into the boat, the wind stopped.³³ And those who were in the boat worshiped Him, saying, "You are certainly God's Son!"

Matthew 28:9⁹ And behold, Jesus met them and greeted them. And they came up and took hold of His feet and worshiped Him.

Matthew 28:17¹⁷ When they saw Him, they worshiped Him; but some were doubtful

John 9:38 ³⁸ And he said, "Lord, I believe." And he worshiped Him.

Creator of All Things

John 1:1-3 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.
² He was in the beginning with God.

³ All things came into being through Him, and apart from Him nothing came into being that has come into being.

Colossians 1:16-17 ¹⁶ For by Him all things were created, both in the heavens and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities-- all things have been created through Him and for Him. ¹⁷ He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together.

Hebrews 1:2 ² in these last days [God] has spoken to us in His Son, whom He appointed heir of all things, through whom [Jesus] also He [God] made the world.

Luke 19:40 ⁴⁰ But Jesus answered, "I tell you, if these become silent, the stones will cry out!"

The Claims of Jesus

Oneness with the Father

John 10:30 ³⁰ "I and the Father are one."

John 17:11 ¹¹ "I am no longer in the world; and yet they themselves are in the world, and I come to You. Holy Father, keep them in Your name, the name which You have given Me, that they may be one even as We are.

John 17:21-22 ²¹ that they may all be one; even as You, Father, are in Me and I in You, that they also may be in Us, so that the world may believe that You sent Me. ²² "The glory which You have given Me I have given to them, that they may be one, just as We are one;

John 14:9-10 He who has seen Me has seen the Father; how can you say, 'Show us the Father'?

¹⁰ "Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father is in Me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on My own initiative, but the Father abiding in Me does His works.

2. Knows all things about the Father

John 5:20²⁰ "For the Father loves the Son, and shows Him all things that He Himself is doing; and the Father will show Him greater works than these, so that you will marvel.

Matthew 11:27²⁷ "All things have been handed over to Me by My Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father; nor does anyone know the Father except the Son, and anyone to whom the Son wills to reveal Him.

3. The Only Way to God

John 14:6⁶ Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.

The Only Way to Heaven

Matthew 21:38-44³⁸ "But when the vine-growers saw the son, they said among themselves, 'This is the heir; come, let us kill him and seize his inheritance.'³⁹ "They took him, and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.⁴⁰ "Therefore when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those vine-growers?"⁴¹ They said to Him, "He will bring those wretches to a wretched end, and will rent out the vineyard to other vine-growers who will pay him the proceeds at the proper seasons."⁴² Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures, 'THE STONE WHICH THE BUILDERS REJECTED, THIS BECAME THE CHIEF CORNER stone;

THIS CAME ABOUT FROM THE LORD, AND IT IS MARVELOUS IN OUR EYES '?⁴³
"Therefore I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people, producing the fruit of it.⁴⁴ "And he who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; but on whomever it falls, it will scatter him like dust."

The Miracles of Jesus

Physical/Illness Healings Fever

Matthew 8:14-15¹⁴ When Jesus came into Peter's home, He saw his mother-in-law lying sick in bed with a fever.¹⁵

He touched her hand, and the fever left her; and she got up and waited on Him.

Blindness

Matthew 9:28-30 ²⁸ When He entered the house, the blind men came up to Him, and Jesus said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They said to Him, "Yes, Lord." ²⁹ Then He touched their eyes, saying, "It shall be done to you according to your faith." ³⁰ And their eyes were opened.

Deaf and Mute

Mark 7:32-35 ³² They brought to Him one who was deaf and spoke with difficulty, and they implored Him to lay His hand on him. ³³ Jesus took him aside from the crowd, by himself, and put His fingers into his ears, and after spitting, He touched his tongue with the saliva; ³⁴ and looking up to heaven with a deep sigh, He said to him, "Ephphatha!" that is, "Be opened!" ³⁵ And his ears were opened, and the impediment of his tongue was removed, and he began speaking plainly.

Diseases

Matthew 4:23 ²³ Jesus was going throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and every kind of sickness among the people.

Cosmic Miracles

a. Create the world

Colossians 1:16 ¹⁶ For by Him all things were created, both in the heavens and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities-- all things have been created through Him and for Him.

b. Still a Raging Storm

Mark 4:37-39 ³⁷ And there arose a fierce gale of wind, and the waves were breaking over the boat so much that the boat was already filling up. ³⁸ Jesus Himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke Him and said to Him, "Teacher, do You not care that we are perishing?"

³⁹ And He got up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, "Hush, be still." And the wind died down and it became perfectly calm.

Turn Water into Wine

John 2:8-9 ⁸ And He said to them, "Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter." So they took it to him. ⁹ When the headwaiter tasted the water which had become wine, and did not know where it came from (but the servants who had drawn the water knew), the headwaiter called the bridegroom, John 2:11 ¹¹ This beginning of His signs Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and manifested His glory, and His disciples believed in Him.

Create Much Bread from a Small Loaf

Mark 6:40-44 ⁰ They sat down in groups of hundreds and of fifties. ⁴¹ And He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up toward heaven, He blessed the food and broke the loaves and He kept giving them to the disciples to set before them; and He divided up the two fish among them all. ⁴² They all ate and were satisfied, ⁴³ and they picked up twelve full baskets of the broken pieces, and also of the fish. ⁴⁴ There were five thousand men who ate the loaves.

Walk on Water

Matthew 14:24-27 ²⁴ But the boat was already a long distance from the land, battered by the waves; for the wind was contrary. ²⁵ And in the fourth watch of the night He came to them, walking on the sea. ²⁶ When the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were terrified, and said, "It is a ghost!" And they cried out in fear. ²⁷ But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid."

Raise the Dead

John 11:43-44 ⁴³ When He had said these things, He cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come forth." ⁴⁴ The man who had died came forth, bound hand and foot with wrappings, and his face was wrapped around with a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

Luke 7:12-15 ¹² Now as He approached the gate of the city, a dead man was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow; and a sizeable crowd from the city was with her. ¹³ When the Lord saw her, He felt compassion for her, and said to her, "Do not weep." ¹⁴ And He came up and touched the coffin; and the bearers came to a halt. And He said, "Young man, I say to you, arise!" ¹⁵ The dead man sat up and began to speak. And Jesus gave him back to his mother.

His Humanity—The Humanness of Jesus

"The testimony of the NT, particularly the narrative of the four Gospels, presents a consistent picture of a true man, walking in dependence upon his heavenly Father."

The Birth of Jesus

The birth of Jesus was similar to any human being coming into the world

Yet, it was very unique in that He existed previously in heaven!

Matthew 16:21 ²¹ From that time Jesus began to show His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem, and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised up on the third day.

The Incarnation and Virgin Birth of Christ

Why Become a Man?

The incarnation: refers to the second person of the triune God—while still remaining fully God—clothing Himself with genuine humanity in order to relate to and live as a human being.

John 1:14 ¹⁴ And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us, and we saw His glory, glory as of the only begotten from the Father, full of grace and truth.

Jesus had to become a man in order to relate to man and die as a man for men in bringing sinful men to God.

Hebrews 2:17 ¹⁷ Therefore, He had to be made like His brethren in all things, so that He might become a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people.

“Jesus could have never been our Redeemer if He were not from our own kin” — Doug Bookman Why Born of a Virgin?

i. Foretold in the Old Testament in 700BC (700 years before Jesus lived!)

Isaiah 7:14 ¹⁴ "Therefore the Lord Himself will give you a sign: Behold, a virgin will be with child and bear a son, and she will call His name Immanuel.

The Definition of the Virgin Birth: This is that miraculous act whereby Jesus Christ was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit in the womb of the virgin Mary with the result that the Second Person of the Triune God was joined eternally to a real human body and nature.

NOT the Roman Catholic View of “Immaculate Conception”

This is not to be confused with the Roman Catholic doctrine of the Immaculate Conception. This refers to Mary's conception as holy and free from sin. Declared by Pope Pius IX in 1854.

Simply, immaculate conception speaks of the miraculous conception of Mary.

This is totally unbiblical and flat-out wrong! Mary was a sinner (she even needed a “Savior”, see Luke 1:47!).

Only Jesus Christ was born of a virgin woman:

Matthew 1:20 ²⁰ But when he had considered this, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife; for the Child who has been conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit.

c. Conclusion:

“IF Jesus was indeed God incarnate and if the incarnation is indeed unrepeatable then Jesus was indeed absolutely unique and also if this historical Jesus is indeed the Creator and if Christianity claims this to be indeed true THEN Christianity is unique among religions THUS no incarnation then no Christianity.”

IV. How the Divine and Human Natures Fit Together

Hypostatic Union – the doctrine that Jesus Christ is both 100% God and 100% Man.

Theanthropic Person - the doctrine that Jesus Christ is the God-Man!

NOTE: The divine and human natures never compete with one another. The Bible gives a portrait of ONE person—a GOD-MAN person!

Read how an ancient Creed understood this mystery:

“We, then, . . . teach men to confess one and the same Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, the same perfect in Godhead and also perfect in manhood; . . . one and the same Christ, Son, Lord, Only-begotten, to be acknowledged in two natures, inconfusedly, unchangeably, indivisibly, inseparably; the distinction of natures being by no means taken away by the union, but rather the property of each nature being preserved, and concurring in one Person and one Subsistence, not parted or divided into two persons, but one and the same Son. . . .” (Schaff, Creeds of Christendom, 2:62-63).

VI. The Search for the “Historical” Jesus

You will hear many today speak of the “historical Jesus.” But to them—the historical Jesus is different than the Biblical Jesus. To them, the biblical Jesus is a made-up myth, a lie, a foolish idea. Rather, they seek to understand the real Jesus of history.

This is the standard argument of liberals and those who deny Jesus as being the Messiah. You will hear your secular college professors speak of the “historical Jesus” or the “Jesus of history.”

You must remember: The Jesus of history is the Biblical Jesus. The Historical Jesus is the biblical Jesus. They are ONE and the SAME. There is no divide or separation.

The Quest for the Historical Jesus is a foolish search because the only way to truthfully learn about the historical Jesus is through the biblical record about Jesus!

Application For This Week (James 1:23–25):

Because Jesus is fully God, how must this impact your worship of Him?

Knowing that Jesus Christ was also a human being—like you—how should this impact the way you think He can relate to you and your struggles (cf. Hebrews 4:15-16).

Because Jesus is the only way to God the Father and, therefore, the only way to be forgiven of your sin and enter heaven, have you committed your life to Jesus Christ?

What is one way in your life that you need to commit to Jesus Christ as your LORD and as your Savior? In other words, is there one area, hobby, relationship, activity that you just aren't willing to give totally over to God? Think of one area and give it over to God today!

Introduction

The person and work of Jesus Christ lie at the very heart of Christianity. The essence of the work of Christ is that Jesus died as a perfect and sinless man in the place of sinful and wretched sinners who believe upon Him with the result of a reconciliation between sinful man and holy God and sovereign adoption into God's heavenly family.

All that will be talked about in this unit is essentially the doctrine of SOTERIOLOGY. That's a fancy word that means: the doctrines of salvation.

It is not that each Christian must understand all these truths and every minute detail, however, if one is genuinely saved, then he will know, at least, the basics of the work of Christ.

Note the chain of salvation in the following passage—the past, the present, and the future are all linked together:

Romans 8:29-30 For those whom He foreknew, He also predestined to become conformed to the image of His Son, so that He would be the firstborn among many brethren;³⁰ and these whom He predestined, He also called; and these whom He called, He also justified; and these whom He justified, He also glorified.

Very clearly from these passages all the initiative for salvation rests fully in the hands of a gracious and sovereign God and definitely not in the hands of a sinful, lost, spiritually-blinded, and condemned man, who is fundamentally an enemy of God (Trevor Craigen, Seminary Course Lecture).

Scripture clearly reveals that God has had a plan for redemption since the beginning of time:

Ephesians 3:10-11⁰ so that the manifold wisdom of God might now be made known through the church to the rulers and the authorities in the heavenly places.¹¹ This was in accordance with the eternal purpose which He carried out in Christ Jesus our Lord,

Acts 2:23²³ this Man, delivered over by the predetermined plan and foreknowledge of God, you nailed to a cross by the hands of godless men and put Him to death.

Ephesians 1:11¹¹ also we have obtained an inheritance, having been predestined according to His purpose who works all things after the counsel of His will,

The Doctrines of Salvation/Atonement

The Atonement

Why the need for the atonement anyway?

The holiness of God

Remember, God is perfectly holy and separated from sin and nothing— absolutely nothing!— that is sinful can ever enter His awesome presence.

Habakkuk 1:13 ¹³ Your eyes are too pure to approve evil, And You can not look on wickedness with favor.

“In the final analysis our great problem with holiness is not that our concepts of holiness are feeble, but that our hearts are rebellious. We are selfish, that's our problem. And the fact that we often won't admit our selfishness shows how deep the pride goes” (Floyd McClung).

This is the problem of man: God is holy and there is no conceivable way you as a miserable sinner could ever have a relationship with God!

The sinfulness of all mankind

Because man is totally, radically, and comprehensively dead in sin and unable to save himself, God must be the One who intercedes if anyone is ever to be saved.

Man is sinful and is an enemy of God without Jesus Christ.

Man is dead in sin and has utterly no hope of any peaceful relationship with God in and of himself...

Romans 3:23

23 for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,

Romans 6:23 23 For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Isaiah 48:22

22 "There is no peace for the wicked," says the LORD.

1 Kings 8:46 ⁴⁶ "When they sin against You (for there is no man who does not sin) and You are angry with them

Ephesians 2:1-3 and you were dead in your trespasses and sins, ² in which you formerly walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, of the spirit that is now working in the sons of disobedience. ³ Among them we too all formerly lived in the lusts of our flesh, indulging the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, even as the rest.

Therefore, no one who is wholly sinful and entirely wretched can have peace with an infinitely holy and righteous God!

The Sinlessness of Jesus Christ in bringing man to God and God to man.

Hebrews 4:15 ¹⁵ For we do not have a high priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but One who has been tempted in all things as we are, yet without sin.

This is God's solution to man's problem—remember, it is only God who can bridge the great chasm between God and man. And the bridge offering man access to God is Jesus Christ.

It's only through Jesus Christ—the perfect God/Man—that we—the sinful human beings—can be brought into a relationship with God.

Election

Definition of Election—The unmerited selection by God in choosing certain unworthy individuals to Himself.

Election is the doctrine whereby, before the earth was created, God selected or appointed certain people to be His own children (Eph 1:4-5).

Matthew 24:24 ²⁴ "For false Christs and false prophets will arise and will show great signs and wonders, so as to mislead, if possible, even the elect.

Romans 8:33 ³³ Who will bring a charge against God's elect? God is the one who justifies;

John 15:16 ¹⁶ "You did not choose Me but I chose you,

Ephesians 1:4 ⁴ just as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and blameless before Him.

1 Corinthians 1:27-28 ²⁷ but God has chosen the foolish things of the world to shame the wise, and God has chosen the weak things of the world to shame the things which are strong, ²⁸ and the base things of the world and the despised God has chosen, the things that are not, so that He may nullify the things that are,

The question that follows is this: What did God base his election on? What was the purpose of God electing some to salvation and not others? There are 2 primary views:

Conditional Election—God selected certain individuals to salvation based upon the foresight that they would one day believe in him.

This, unfortunately, is a false teaching that is based upon a faulty and man-centered understanding of some texts (cf. Rom 8:29-30) that God knew beforehand who would believe.

This, then, makes the condition of God's election of us based upon whether we would believe upon Him! That means, MAN INITIATED HIS SALVATION. Not only is that impossible for man to choose God, but this is salvation by human works, and that's heresy (cf. Rom 3:10-20).

Unconditional Election—God selected individuals to be saved not based upon anything the person did/initiated but solely on God's sovereign purpose and grace.

2 Timothy 1:9 ⁹ who has saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and grace which was granted us in Christ Jesus from all eternity,

Ephesians 1:4-5 just as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and blameless before Him. In love ⁵ He predestined us to adoption as sons through Jesus Christ to Himself, according to the kind intention of His will,

John 15:16 ¹⁶ "You did not choose Me but I chose you, and appointed you that you would go and bear fruit, and that your fruit would remain, so that whatever you ask of the Father in My name He may give to you.

If you are a Christian, you credit your salvation to God! If you reject Him and are cast into hell, you are wholly responsible for your own damnation.

“If you are saved you dare not take any credit to yourself; if you are lost you alone are responsible” (Alva McClain).

“If you perish in hell, blame yourself, as it is entirely your fault. But if you should make it to heaven, credit God, for that is entirely His work! To Him alone belong all praise and glory, for salvation is all of grace, from start to finish” (Mark Webb).

Reprobation (“Double Predestination”)

This answers the question: what happened to those who were not elected unto salvation?

Definition: This is the doctrine where God not only selected (or elected) certain individuals for salvation, but he also actively, selected or appointed all the rest to eternal damnation in hell.

Though this is a hard concept to accept, it puts God in absolute charge of everything showing His utter sovereignty in election of some and damnation of the rest.

Scriptural support:

Romans 9:22 ²² What if God, although willing to demonstrate His wrath and to make His power known, endured with much patience vessels of wrath prepared for destruction?

Jude 1:4 ⁴ For certain persons have crept in unnoticed, those who were long beforehand marked out for this condemnation, ungodly persons who turn the grace of our God into licentiousness and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

The extent of the atonement

This issue of the “extent of the atonement” answers the basic question: “For whom did Christ die?”

Principles of Agreement:

All agree that not everyone will be saved.

All agree that Christ's death was sufficient in order to save sinners.

The question is: for whom did Jesus die?

General Redemption ("Unlimited Atonement")

Obviously, we cannot believe in total redemption or universal redemption meaning that everyone will be saved. Of course, everyone is not a Christian nor will everyone end up in heaven (compare this thinking with Jesus' words in Matt 7:13-14).

However, general redemption refers to the teaching that Jesus' death and atonement was sufficient for all but efficient (or applied) for the elect only.

In other words, Christ died for the "world", but the application of that death with all of its glorious doctrines (redemption, reconciliation, adoption, forgiveness) is entrusted only to those who believe.

John 1:29 ²⁹ The next day he saw Jesus coming to him and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!

1 John 2:2 ² and He Himself is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for those of the whole world

1 Timothy 4:10 ¹⁰ For it is for this we labor and strive, because we have fixed our hope on the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of believers.

Isaiah 53:6 ⁶ All of us like sheep have gone astray, Each of us has turned to his own way; But the LORD has caused the iniquity of us all To fall on Him.

*This is the same thing as telling people: "Jesus died for YOU" because you don't know if that person will ever become a believer. What if they die having rejected Christ and end up in hell? Did Jesus, then, really die for them?

Though some verses may lead to this thinking, I believe the better understanding of Christ's work on the cross and its application toward people is not to be understood in this way.

Particular Redemption or “Definite Atonement” (sometimes known as “Limited Atonement”)

Particular redemption teaches that Christ’s death was only for the elect and it is sufficient and efficient for the elect only. In other words, non-believers have NO (“salvific”) part in the death of Jesus Christ whatsoever.

When you hear “Limited Atonement,” it does not mean that Jesus’ death is limited in any way, that is, weak or incapable of accomplishing certain facts, rather, it is limited in scope, namely, it does NOT reach to every single person on earth, but only to the elect.

Therefore, the better term to describe this doctrine is “particular redemption”—Christ’s death was accomplished for a particular group of people only (=the redeemed/elect).

Matthew 1:21 ²¹ "She will bear a Son; and you shall call His name Jesus, for He will save His people from their sins."

John 10:15 ¹⁵ even as the Father knows Me and I know the Father; and I lay down My life for the sheep.

Ephesians 5:25 ²⁵ ...Christ also loved the church and gave Himself up for her, Isaiah 53:5 ⁵ But He was pierced through for our transgressions, He was crushed for our iniquities; The chastening for our well-being fell upon Him, And by His scourging we are healed.

In other words, particular redemption teaches that when Jesus died for believers, he actually accomplished and secured salvation for them (hence, the term “definite atonement”). The best those of the “universal redemption” (unlimited atonement) can believe is that Jesus’ death only made their salvation possible (otherwise, everyone would be saved!).

Some (wrongly!) teach that Christ’s work on the cross was designed to make possible the salvation of all men on the condition that they believe, but that Christ’s death in itself did not actually secure or guarantee salvation for everyone (Steele, et al, Five Points, 40).

John 19:30 ³⁰ Therefore when Jesus had received the sour wine,

He said, "It is finished!" And He bowed His head and gave up His spirit.

NOTE: This phrase: it is finished is a legal, law-court term and it signifies an actual payment showing that the debt has actually been paid for in full and there is nothing left in the transaction.

In other words, when Christ died, he actually paid the debt in full for His own children so that there is nothing left to be done!

Romans 5:10¹⁰ For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we shall be saved by His life.

Therefore, did Christ die for all people, including those in hell? NO—that's why they're being punished for their sin by the terrifying wrath of God for all eternity.

Acts 20:28 the church of God which He purchased with His own blood.

The result of the atonement

Peace with God

You are no longer at enmity (hostility) with God. You are no longer God's enemy. God will no longer judge you. You are no longer destined for eternal punishment because of your sin. But now, you are on peaceful terms with the Holy God of the universe because of Christ's atonement credited to you if you believe in Him.

Romans 5:1-2 Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ,² through whom also we have obtained our introduction by faith into this grace in which we stand; and we exult in hope of the glory of God.

Galatians 1:3³ Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ,

2 Peter 1:2² Grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord;

If you are a believer, then you are at absolute peace with God! You are no longer under his wrath and anger as an enemy of God! You are now his friend, his child, his treasured possession.

Are you at peace or enmity with God? Are you His friend or his enemy?

ii. Forgiven by God

Isaiah 6:7 ⁷ He touched my mouth with it and said, "Behold, this has touched your lips; and your iniquity is taken away and your sin is forgiven."

Romans 4:7 ⁷ "BLESSED ARE THOSE WHOSE LAWLESS DEEDS HAVE BEEN FORGIVEN, AND WHOSE SINS HAVE BEEN COVERED."

Ephesians 4:32 ² Be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving each other, just as God in Christ also has forgiven you.

Colossians 2:13-14 ³ When you were dead in your transgressions and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He made you alive together with Him, having forgiven us all our transgressions, ¹⁴ having canceled out the certificate of debt consisting of decrees against us, which was hostile to us; and He has taken it out of the way, having nailed it to the cross.

1 John 2:12 ¹² I am writing to you, little children, because your sins have been forgiven you for His name's sake.

Hope in God

Romans 5:2 ² through whom also we have obtained our introduction by faith into this grace in which we stand; and we exult in hope of the glory of God.

Romans 8:25 ²⁵ But if we hope for what we do not see, with perseverance we wait eagerly for it.

2 Corinthians 1:10 ¹⁰ who delivered us from so great a peril of death, and will deliver us, He on whom we have set our hope. And He will yet deliver us,

1 Thessalonians 2:19 ¹⁹ For who is our hope or joy or crown of exultation? Is it not even you, in the presence of our Lord Jesus at His coming?

1 Thessalonians 4:13-14 ¹³ But we do not want you to be uninformed, brethren, about those who are asleep, so that you will not grieve as do the rest who have no hope. ¹⁴ For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with Him those who have fallen asleep in Jesus.

Hebrews 3:6⁶ but Christ was faithful as a Son over His house-- whose house we are, if we hold fast our confidence and the boast of our hope firm until the end.

The Theology of the Work of Christ on Calvary's Cross

Introduction

The accounts of Christ's death on the cross (the 4 gospels) and the theology of the accounts (the NT) give us a theology of the cross.

The Turning Away of the Wrath of God—"Propitiation"

"It is the combination of God's deep love for the sinner with His uncompromising reaction against sin which brings about what the Bible calls propitiation" (Leon Morris).

Hebrews 2:17¹⁷ Therefore, He had to be made like His brethren in all things, so that He might become a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people.

Whenever we talk about "propitiation," we must talk about the "wrath of God" which has been turned away from the repentant sinner because it has been unleashed on Jesus Christ.

Therefore, to speak of God propitiating the sinner, we refer to God turning away his angry wrath from the sinner.

1 John 2:2² and He Himself is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for those of the whole world.

1 John 4:10¹⁰ In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

Romans 3:25²⁵ whom God displayed publicly as a propitiation in His blood through faith. This was to demonstrate His righteousness, because in the forbearance of God He passed over the sins previously committed;

In conclusion to this masterful and mysterious doctrine of "propitiation," Dr.

John Stott summarizes:

"It is God himself who in holy wrath needs to be propitiated, God himself who in holy love undertook to do the propitiating, and God himself who in the person of his Son died for the propitiation of our sins. Thus God took his own loving initiative to appease his own righteous anger by bearing it his own self in his own Son when he took our place and died for us. There is no crudity here to evoke our ridicule, only the profundity of holy love to evoke our worship.”

Therefore, this means that those who do not repent and believe upon Christ will certainly suffer under the angry wrath of God forevermore in torment.

Psalm 7:11 ¹¹ God is a righteous judge, And a God who has indignation every day.

The Substitution

Definition of Substitution (or “Penal Substitution Theory”)—Christ’s death was in the place of sinners who believe.

Scriptural support:

2 Corinthians 5:21 ²¹ He made Him who knew no sin to be sin on our behalf, so that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.

1 Peter 2:24 ²⁴ and He Himself bore our sins in His body on the cross, so that we might die to sin and live to righteousness; for by His wounds you were healed.

Hebrews 9:28 - 10:1 ²⁸ so Christ also, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time for salvation without reference to sin, to those who eagerly await Him.

Galatians 3:13 ¹³ Christ redeemed us from the curse of the Law, having become a curse for us-- for it is written, "CURSED IS EVERYONE WHO HANGS ON A TREE"--

Purpose of Substitution: to transfer the sins of true believers to Jesus Christ.

God is, therefore, taking the offense upon Himself.

No principles of judgment left ever to be placed upon the repentant sinner.

Justification

Definition—This is the legal, divine, supernatural, and instantaneous act whereby God declares the sinner to be absolutely sinless and, at the same time, imputes (=credits) the all of the perfect righteousness of Jesus Christ to the penitent sinner.

ii. Scriptural proof:

Romans 5:1-2 Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ,² through whom also we have obtained our introduction by faith into this grace in which we stand; and we exult in hope of the glory of God.

Luke 18:14⁴ "I tell you, this man went to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted."

Romans 3:28²⁸ For we maintain that a man is justified by faith apart from works of the Law.

Romans 8:30³⁰ and these whom He predestined, He also called; and these whom He called, He also justified; and these whom He justified, He also glorified.

Galatians 3:24²⁴ Therefore the Law has become our tutor to lead us to Christ, so that we may be justified by faith.

Titus 3:7⁷ so that being justified by His grace we would be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

1 Corinthians 6:11¹¹ Such were some of you; but you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Spirit of our God.

The Nature of Justification:

Justification is a declarative act of God.

God pronounces the sinner righteous, not that He makes the sinner righteous.

Justification is not through (by means of, the result of) sanctification (=this is, then, salvation by works).

Justification is a FREE gift (Rom 5:16; Eph 2:8-9).

Justification is not a mere pardon. When a person is pardoned, the requirements of the law have still NOT been satisfied. A pardoned debt is one that is NOT paid. A pardoned criminal is one who does NOT serve his sentence. BUT IN JUSTIFICATION, GOD HAS PAID THE PENALTY, NOT OVERLOOKED IT OR SET IT ASIDE.

Justification is an eternal decree. It can never—indeed, it will never—be overturned. Those whom God justifies, he promises to glorify. Therefore, A GENUINE CHRISTIAN CAN NEVER LOSE HIS/HER SALVATION!.

Have you been justified? Are you declared right with God? If you haven't been justified, then you are not a Christian! If you are a Christian, then you are justified.

The Reconciliation

The idea of reconciliation belongs to the language describing a changed relationship, from enmity to amity, and is directed to the need created by the alienation between God and man.

You were an enemy of God; You are now a friend of God.

You were once hated by God; You are now eternally loved by God. You were once hating God; You are now serving God.

You were under God's wrath; You are now under God's grace.

"Reconciliation brings together two parties who were separated by an offense. We are the offenders, God is the offended One. God Himself removed the barrier through the work of Christ" (Brian Morley, TMC Course Notes).

2 Corinthians 5:18-19⁸ Now all these things are from God, who reconciled us to Himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation,¹⁹ namely, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and He has committed to us the word of reconciliation.

IV. The Demands on Your Life because of the Work of Christ

This is the application of all that was discussed above. It answers the question, In light of all the theology and the meaning of Christ's work on the cross, "SO WHAT!"; "what does this have to do with me and my life?"; and "how should I respond?"

a.Total Repentance

Acts 2:38³⁸ Peter said to them, "Repent, and each of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Acts 3:19¹⁹ "Therefore repent and return, so that your sins may be wiped away, in order that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord;

Luke 13:3 ³ "I tell you, no, but unless you repent, you will all likewise perish.

Have you repented of your sin and turned to Christ? Are you genuinely confessing your sin every day to God? Do you weep over your sin? Do you hate to break God's heart? Does it bother you when you sin?

b. Total Faith/Belief/Trust

John 11:26 ²⁶ and everyone who lives and believes in Me will never die. Do you believe this?"

John 3:18 ¹⁸ "He who believes in Him is not judged; he who does not believe has been judged already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

John 8:24 ²⁴ "Therefore I said to you that you will die in your sins; for unless you believe that I am He, you will die in your sins."

Ephesians 2:8-9 ⁸ For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; ⁹ not as a result of works, so that no one may boast.

Compare these with:

John 2:23-25 ²³ Now when He was in Jerusalem at the Passover, during the feast, many believed in His name, observing His signs which He was doing. ²⁴ But Jesus, on His part, was not entrusting Himself to them, for He knew all men, ²⁵ and because He did not need anyone to testify concerning man, for He Himself knew what was in man.

Horatius Bonar, who wrote the hymn It is Well with My Soul wrote: "Faith is the acknowledgment of the entire absence of all goodness in us, and the recognition of the cross as the substitute for all the want on our part. The whole work is His, not ours, from first to last."

"However, when salvation is all of grace, then all of your past life, however black and filthy it may be, need not keep you from coming to Jesus. Christ receives sinners. God has elected sinners. He has elected some of the blackest of sinners, so why not you? He receives everyone who comes to Him; He will not cast you out" (Charles Spurgeon).

Have you placed your total trust in Christ as Lord and Savior? Do you believe in Him?

c. Total Commitment

Matthew 10:37-38 ³⁷ "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me; and he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. ³⁸ "And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me.

Matthew 16:24-25 ²⁴ Then Jesus said to His disciples, "If anyone wishes to come after Me, he must deny himself, and take up his cross and follow Me. ²⁵ "For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it; but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it.

Ephesians 5:1-2 Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children; ² and walk in love, just as Christ also loved you and gave Himself up for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God as a fragrant aroma.

Jesus demands that you love Him supremely, live for Him completely, rejoice in Him wholly, and represent Christ accurately.

d. Total Obedience

Colossians 3:12-13 ¹² So, as those who have been chosen of God, holy and beloved, put on a heart of compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience; ¹³ bearing with one another, and forgiving each other, whoever has a complaint against anyone; just as the Lord forgave you, so also should you.

Do you obey Christ? Do you even read the Bible in order to know what God demands of you and HOW you should obey Him? If not, start reading God's Word today! Are you committed to obeying Him even if that means sacrificing your reputation, your friends, your popularity, your "coolness," your video games, the movies you watch, the TV shows you watch, the friends you hang out with, the parties you go to...?

e. Total Reverence

Matthew 14:33 ³ And those who were in the boat worshiped Him, saying, "You are certainly God's Son!"

John 9:38 ³⁸ And he said, "Lord, I believe." And he worshiped Him.

Hebrews 10:30-31 ³⁰ For we know Him who said, "VENGEANCE IS MINE, I WILL REPAY." And again, "THE LORD WILL JUDGE HIS PEOPLE." ³¹ It is a terrifying thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

Total Humility

You didn't deserve it!

You didn't do anything to earn it!

God's grace did it all!

Therefore, God chose you and had pity upon you simply out of his sheer grace and mercy!

Praise God!

God's work on the cross, if you believe in Jesus Christ, was accomplished for YOU and this must produce humility in you as you wonder why Christ would die for YOU!

g. Total Hope

Acts 24:15¹⁵ having a hope in God, which these men cherish themselves, that there shall certainly be a resurrection of both the righteous and the wicked.

Romans 8:24-25²⁴ For in hope we have been saved, but hope that is seen is not hope; for who hopes for what he already sees? ²⁵ But if we hope for what we do not see, with perseverance we wait eagerly for it.

Hope in Jesus Christ! Long for His return! He is coming quickly. Scripture says we are to watch and be ready for His appearing!

Remember, you don't want Jesus to return while you're engaged in a sin (i.e., watching a filthy movie or looking at porn on the internet), so always live in light of the possibility that God could return at any moment—and this will spur you on to live a HOLY and Christlike life!

5. SALVATION, HOW DOES A PERSON GET SAVED, ASSURANCE OF SALVATION

Introduction

a. Current Stats of “Christians”

From a news article in 2000, adherents.com

(http://www.adherents.com/largecom/com_christian.html), it noted that the 10 largest Christian nations in the world are:

Nation Population	Percentage Christian
1. USA (225 million)	85%
2. Brazil (139 million)	93%
3. Mexico (86 million)	99%
4. Russia (80 million)	60%

However, they do mention that: (1) Christianity, as defined for the purpose of census and surveys, includes all those who claim to be Christian; and (2) These numbers also include adherents of different divisions within Christianity, including Catholics, Eastern Orthodox, Protestant, Pentecostals, Jehovah's Witnesses, Latter-day Saints, African Indigenous Churches and others.

So according to this website, all the above groups are the same—that is, part of Christianity.

b. Jesus' Words for Most 'Christians'

But Jesus said:

Matthew 7:13-14 ¹³ "Enter through the narrow gate; for the gate is wide and the way is broad that leads to destruction, and there are many who enter through it. ¹⁴ "For the gate is small and the way is narrow that leads to life, and there are few who find it."

Matthew 7:21-23 ²¹ "Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father who is in heaven will enter. ²² "Many will say to Me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in Your name, and in Your name cast out demons, and in Your name perform many miracles?' ²³ "And then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; DEPART FROM ME, YOU WHO PRACTICE LAWLESSNESS.' (Note context here!)

“The religion pages of major newspapers in our day are filled with advertisements for very kind of sect and false religion, including deviant forms of Christianity as well as cults and the occult. Many of those groups masquerade as forms of Christianity and claim to teach a new and better gospel. But while purporting to offer spiritual life and help, they instead teach the way of spiritual death and damnation. While claiming to lead people to heaven, they usher them directly into hell" (John MacArthur, Matthew, MNTC, 3:354).

Luke 13:22-28 ²² And He was passing through from one city and village to another, teaching, and proceeding on His way to Jerusalem. ²³ And someone said to Him, "Lord, are there just a few who are being saved?" And He said to them, ²⁴ "Strive to enter through the narrow door; for many, I tell you, will seek to enter and will not be able. ²⁵ "Once the head of the house gets up and shuts the door, and you begin to stand outside and knock on the door, saying, 'Lord, open up to us!' then He will answer and say to you, 'I do not know where you are from.' ²⁶ "Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in Your presence, and You taught in our streets'; ²⁷ and He will say, 'I tell you, I do not know where you are from; DEPART FROM ME, ALL YOU EVILDOERS.' ²⁸ "In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, but yourselves being thrown out.

Matthew 16:24 ²⁴ Then Jesus said to His disciples, "If anyone wishes to come after Me, he must deny himself, and take up his cross and follow Me.

At a pastor's conference, a well-known theologian and writer said:

"Pastors, brothers, we need to come to grips with the fact that most of the people sitting in the pews of our church are unbelievers dressed in sheep's clothing." —Jerry Bridges

*Therefore, I exhort you who think that you are believers, 2 Corinthians 13:5 ⁵ Test yourselves to see if you are in the faith; examine yourselves! Examine yourself! Test yourself! Make certain you're genuinely saved!

Exclusivity of Salvation

i. There is only one Savior who offers salvation to you! Believe in Him!

Acts 4:12 ¹² "And there is salvation in no one else; for there is no other name under heaven that has been given among men by which we must be saved."

John 14:6 ⁶ Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.

1 Timothy 2:5-6 ⁵ For there is one God, and one mediator also between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, ⁶ who gave Himself as a ransom for all, the testimony given at the proper time.

1 Peter 3:18 ¹⁸ For Christ also died for sins once for all, the just for the unjust, so that He might bring us to God, having been put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit;

Your Need for Salvation a. You are a Sinner

Ecclesiastes 7:20 ²⁰ Indeed, there is not a righteous man on earth who continually does good and who never sins.

b. You are Separated from God

Isaiah 59:2 ² But your iniquities have made a separation between you and your God, And your sins have hidden His face from you so that He does not hear.

You have no Hope apart from God

Ephesians 2:12-13 ¹² remember that you were at that time separate from Christ, excluded from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. ¹³ But now in Christ Jesus you who formerly were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ.

You have been offered salvation as a free gift!

Romans 3:23-24 ²³ for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, ²⁴ being justified as a gift by His grace through the redemption which is in Christ Jesus;

Romans 6:23 ²³ For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Ephesians 2:8-9 ⁸ For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; ⁹ not as a result of works, so that no one may boast.

What is Salvation?

The Definition: The deliverance that God provides and accomplishes on behalf of the sinner who repents from his sin, believes upon Jesus Christ for eternal life, and lives a life of submissive obedience to God's Will as revealed in the Scriptures.

The Savior: Jesus Christ is the only Savior offered to mankind to save from sin.

1 Timothy 4:10 ¹⁰ For it is for this we labor and strive, because we have fixed our hope on the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of believers.

The Means: The means of salvation is through faith.

Romans 4:5 ⁵ But to the one who does not work, but believes in Him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is credited as righteousness,

IV. How does a person get "saved"?

In other words, how do I get to heaven? or How do I have a relationship with God?

a. False Ways of "Getting Saved"

- i. Going to church
- ii. Reading your Bible

Growing up in a Godly Family

iv. Knowing Christian Doctrines/Theology v. Filling out a Card

vi. Going to Summer/Winter Youth Camp

vii. Praying 'the prayer'

viii. Raising a Hand/Responding to an Altar Call

"All of these actions and attitudes listed above—though not inherently bad in and of themselves, in fact, many are good!—are absolutely unable of saving a person. They get a person no where with God. Instead of putting a person on better grounds with God; they are plunged deeper into their own pride and self-sufficiency."

"Often it is because the person who witnessed to (a new Christian) told them that all they ad to do was make a profession of faith, walk an aisle, raise a hand, say a prayer, and never doubt what the Lord had done in their lives. Unfortunately, many evangelists, pastors, and personal workers attempt to certify a person's salvation apart from the convicting work of the Holy Spirit and the evidence of fruit with continuance in obedience to the Word" (John MacArthur, Matthew 1-7, MNTC, 475).

The Only Way of Receiving Salvation i. Repentance of Sin

Repentance: a turning away from sin and its actions and pursuing holiness found in Jesus Christ.

Matthew 3:2 ² "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

Matthew 4:17 ¹⁷ From that time Jesus began to preach and say, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

Mark 6:12 ¹² They went out and preached that men should repent.

Acts 3:19 ¹⁹ "Therefore repent and return, so that your sins may be wiped away, in order that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord;

Acts 17:30 ³⁰ "Therefore having overlooked the times of ignorance, God is now declaring to men that all people everywhere should repent,

A person must repent and confess his sins to God. He must come to grips that he has offended a perfect God by his sin nature and all of his sinful acts in life. You must come before God broken, begging for forgiveness and mercy—even though you DON'T deserve it!

If you have never done this, then you are NOT a Christian.

A person who: lives with a mate before marriage, engaged in a homosexual relationship, involved in a sexual relationship outside of marriage, continually disobeys his/her parents with pleasure, disrespects and disobeys authority, cheats in school on tests, homework and neglects the Christian duties habitually (e.g., prayer, reading of the Word, encouragement, church attendance, repentance) IS NOT a Christian. Yes, he cannot be a Christian, because...

1 Corinthians 6:9-10 ⁹ Or do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived; neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor homosexuals, ¹⁰ nor thieves, nor the covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers, will inherit the kingdom of God.

Have you ever repented of your sin? Do you still repent of your sin?

Belief in Jesus Christ

But be careful, this belief is NOT:

Mere temporal faith

God, I believe in you because my mom has cancer and I want you to heal her... (this is a short-lived faith cause if/when she is healed, then your faith in God is over. This is a false, temporal faith.)

Mere intellectual assent

It is not just enough to believe about Jesus Christ; to know the right things; to know the theology. Many people know about God.

In fact, Satan would win the award before all of us—and he certainly isn't a believer!

James 2:19 ¹⁹ You believe that God is one. You do well; the demons also believe, and shudder.

True belief in Jesus Christ involves an active, ongoing, fervent, and confident trust in God regardless of what happens in life. It's placing yourself wholly on the person and work of Jesus Christ.

Saving faith is: trusting in Jesus Christ alone for eternal life. It means resting upon Christ alone and what He has done rather than in what YOU or I have done to get us into heaven.

Acts 16:31 ³¹ They said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved,

What are the results of genuine salvation?

If I could approach Jesus and ask Him if YOU evidenced a Christian life by the way that you live, what would He say? In other words, would Jesus confirm that you are a Christian as shown and evidenced by the way that you live life?

Introductory Remarks:

There are many who “profess” to be believers, but the truth of the matter—as stated by Jesus Himself in the Scriptures—is that narrow is the door that leads to life and few are those who find it!

Additionally, in the New Testament the way in which someone may determine as to whether he is a believer or not is NOT whether you “believed in Jesus” at some point. Rather, the way to determine the genuineness of someone's conversion is to observe the life that they are living now. How are they living? Are they evidencing "the fruit of the Spirit" (cf. Gal 5:22-23)? Are they pursuing Christlikeness and holiness? Are they repenting of and confessing their sins?

In other words, if you are wondering whether you're a believer, ask someone who knows you real well and say: "How am I living? Do I live like Jesus Christ?" If the answer is NO: then believe today and turn to Christ!

God never saves someone without sanctifying him. He will never justify someone without purifying them in life. He will never wash someone's sins away without commanding them to walk in holiness and new life.

Read James 2:14-26 if you doubt me on this!

(In this argument, James [Jesus' brother] says: you validate your faith [i.e., your Christian life] by your works; just look at the way you live and that'll tell you if you are a "new Creation in Christ" or not.)

These marks are not optional! You can't pick some and leave others. If you're a believer, you should be growing in all of these aspects...

Marks of Genuine Conversion:

Note: you will not have all of these traits perfectly, but I would argue and Scripture affirms that every single trait here MUST be present in your life in progressing measure signifying your conversion.

Love for Christ

John 14:15 ¹⁵ "If you love Me, you will keep My commandments.

John 14:21 ²¹ "He who has My commandments and keeps them is the one who loves Me; and he who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and will disclose Myself to him."

John 14:24 ²⁴ "He who does not love Me does not keep My words; and the word which you hear is not Mine, but the Father's who sent Me.

Note: the boldness here: if you don't obey Jesus, you don't love him and therefore you aren't a believer!)

Deuteronomy 6:5 ⁵ "You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might.

1 Corinthians 16:22 ²² If anyone does not love the Lord, he is to be accursed. Maranatha.

No one will enter heaven no does not love Jesus Christ. Don't think that something magically happens when you die. You don't know when you'll die. Do you love Jesus Christ now?

ii. Hatred of Sin

2 Corinthians 7:10-11 ¹⁰ For the sorrow that is according to the will of God produces a repentance without regret, leading to salvation, but the sorrow of the world produces death. ¹¹ For behold what earnestness this very thing, this godly sorrow, has produced in you: what vindication of yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what longing, what zeal, what avenging of wrong! In everything you demonstrated yourselves to be innocent in the matter.

True Christianity requires that we pursue holiness and therefore hate sin. Do you hate it when you sin?

Note Be careful here: some people hate their sin because they hate the consequences that it brings (e.g., getting caught doing things with your girlfriend when your dad walks in) rather than seeing your sin as, first of all, an affront and reproach to Jesus Christ!

The more you love Jesus Christ and know Him, the more you will literally despise, hate, and disdain your sin! (even the little ones!)

iii. Pursuit of Holiness

Hebrews 12:14 ¹⁴ Make every effort to live in peace with all men and to be holy; without holiness no one will see the Lord.

Romans 15:5-6 ⁵ May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you a spirit of unity among yourselves as you follow Christ Jesus, ⁶ so that with one heart and mouth you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Timothy 4:16 ¹⁶ Watch your life and doctrine closely. Persevere in them, because if you do, you will save both yourself and your hearers.

Very simply: do you live a holy life? Are you set apart for Jesus Christ?

(read 1 Cor 6:9-11)

Fervency in Prayer

1 Thessalonians 5:17-18 ¹⁷ pray without ceasing; ¹⁸ in everything give thanks; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

The first and most important aspect of a marriage is communication with your spouse. It is similarly the case with our relationship with God. The most important aspect is communication, prayer, dependence upon God!

Urgency in Evangelism

2 Timothy 4:2-5 ² preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort, with great patience and instruction. ³ For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but wanting to have their ears tickled, they will accumulate for themselves teachers in accordance to their own desires, ⁴ and will turn away their ears from the truth and will turn aside to myths. ⁵ But you, be sober in all things, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry.

Another mark of a true believer includes a passionate desire to share the gospel with the lost who, if they die apart from Christ, will be judged eternally under God's wrath.

Membership in Church

Hebrews 13:17 ¹⁷ Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they keep watch over your souls as those who will give an account. Let them do this with joy and not with grief, for this would be unprofitable for you.

Obedience in Baptism

Matthew 28:19 ¹⁹ "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, Acts 2:38 ³⁸ Peter said to them, "Repent, and each of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

VI. How Should You Share the Gospel?

8. THE PERSON OF THE HOLY SPIRIT, WHO HE IS, HIS ROLE IN LIFE OF BELIEVER

Introduction—The Need for This Study

If I were to give you 2 passages where the Holy Spirit is mentioned in BOTH the OT and the NT—could you do it?

In an April 2009 survey entitled: “Survey: Satan and Holy Spirit Only “Symbols”, The Barna Group noted (<http://www.faithnews.cc/2009/04/17/survey-satan-and-holy-spirit-only-symbols/>).

Most Christians (58 percent) also do not believe that the Holy Spirit is a living force, strongly agreeing or somewhat agreeing with the statement that the Holy Spirit is “a symbol of God’s power or presence but is not a living entity.” Just 34 percent strongly disagreed or somewhat disagreed with that statement, while nine percent were unsure. “The majority of ‘Christians’ who do not believe the Holy Spirit is a living force shows that there is a great need for a rediscovery in Christendom of what the early Church experienced—namely, salvation!” (=baptism of the Holy Spirit.)

How said this is! So-called “Christians” don’t even know Who the Holy Spirit is—even though they claim to have been saved by Him! WOW!

Interestingly, there is even a hospital in Harrisburg, PA called: “The Holy Spirit Hospital” (no kidding!). (I wonder if every patient is always healed! ☺)

“The person of God the Holy Spirit is absolutely crucial for our understanding. Without a proper understanding of who He is, we will be misguided, misinformed, and incomplete in our understanding of who God is.”

Consider the importance of the Holy Spirit: if there were no Holy Spirit, there would be no salvation. If there were no sealing and securing of our salvation, there would be no hope and no assurance whatsoever. God the Holy Spirit is inextricably linked with and unbreakably bound to the doctrine of salvation!

“There are several reasons why the study of the Holy Spirit is of special significance for us. One is that the Holy Spirit is the point at which the Trinity becomes personal to the believer. We generally think of the father as transcendent and far off in heaven; similarly, the Son seems far removed in history and thus also relatively unknowable. But the Holy Spirit is active within the lives of believers; he is resident within us. The Holy Spirit is the particular person of the Trinity through whom the entire Triune Godhead works in us!” —Millard Erickson, Christian Theology, 846.

Who is the Holy Spirit?

He is God

Why is the Holy Spirit to be equated with (or, equal to) God?

Words and works of the Holy Spirit are considered as the words and works of God

Isaiah 6:9 ⁹ He said, "Go, and tell this people: 'Keep on listening, but do not perceive; Keep on looking, but do not understand.' (cf Acts 28:25-27 where this passage is attributed to the Holy Spirit.)

Genesis 1:27 ²⁷ God created man in His own image, in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them.

Job 33:4 ⁴ "The Spirit of God has made me, And the breath of the Almighty gives me life. He is called "God"

Acts 5:3-4 ³ But Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and to keep back some of the price of the land? ⁴ "While it remained unsold, did it not remain your own? And after it was sold, was it not under your control? Why is it that you have conceived this deed in your heart? You have not lied to men but to God."

2 Corinthians 3:17 ¹⁷ Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

He has divine names/characteristics attributed to Him a. He Inspires Scripture:

2 Timothy 3:16 ¹⁶ All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness;

2 Peter 1:21 ²¹ for no prophecy was ever made by an act of human will, but men moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

b. He is Eternal

Hebrews 9:14 ¹⁴ how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without blemish to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

c. He is Omnipresent (Everywhere)

Psalm 139:7-10 ⁷ Where can I go from Your Spirit? Or where can I flee from Your presence? ⁸ If I ascend to heaven, You are there; If I make my bed in Sheol, behold, You are there. ⁹ If I take the wings of the dawn, If I dwell in the remotest part of the sea, ¹⁰ Even there Your hand will lead me, And Your right hand will lay hold of me.

d. He is Omnipotent (All Powerful)

Luke 1:35 ³⁵ The angel answered and said to her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; and for that reason the holy Child shall be called the Son of God.\

e. He gives Life (no one gives life except God and God alone!)

John 6:63 ⁶³ "It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh profits nothing; the words that I have spoken to you are spirit and are life.

Church History has always held to the deity ("Godhood") of the Holy Spirit.

Since 325 AD (council of Nicea), the Church has believed:

"We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets."

b. He is a Personal Being

The Holy Spirit is not just a mere influence or divine power.

IF the Spirit can be shown to be directly linked with terms descriptive of personality, AND, can be shown to act as a person would act,

AND, can be shown to be a separate identifiable person in relation with other persons, AND, can be shown to be clearly possessing divine attributes,

THEN, there is only one obvious conclusion--

He is a very Important Person, not merely an Impersonal Force!

Personal Pronouns used of the Spirit ("he," and "him")

John 14:26 ²⁶ "But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I said to you.

John 16:13 ¹³ "But when He, the Spirit of truth, comes, He will guide you into all the truth; for He will not speak on His own initiative, but whatever He hears, He will speak; and He will disclose to you what is to come.

"The explanation is surely that John habitually thought of the Spirit in personal terms, as 'He' rather than 'It'" —Leon Morris, Spirit of the Living God, 36.

He has four primary elements of personality:

Intellect

1 Corinthians 2:11 ¹¹ For who among men knows the thoughts of a man except the spirit of the man which is in him? Even so the thoughts of God no one knows except the Spirit of God.

Isaiah 11:2 ² The Spirit of the LORD will rest on Him, The spirit of wisdom and understanding, The spirit of counsel and strength, The spirit of knowledge and the fear of the LORD.

Sensibilities

Romans 8:27 ²⁷ and He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

Romans 15:30 ³⁰ Now I urge you, brethren, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in your prayers to God for me, Will 1 Corinthians 12:11 ¹¹ But one and the same Spirit works all these things, distributing to each one individually just as He wills.

4. Life

Romans 8:2 ² For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and of death.

“It is a fundamental revelation of Scripture that the Holy Spirit is a person in the same sense that God the Father is a person and the Lord Jesus Christ is a person” —John Walvoord, The Holy Spirit, 5.

c. He is a Spirit

Genesis 1:2 ² The earth was formless and void, and darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was moving over the surface of the waters.

Conclusion:

All of this leads to one conclusion: the Holy Spirit is a person, not a force, and that person is God, just as fully and in the same way as are the father and the Son” Erickson, Christian Theology, 862).

What does the Holy Spirit do?

a. Had a Part in Creating the World

- i. Genesis 1:2 ² The earth was formless and void, and darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was moving over the surface of the waters
- ii. Job 26:13 ¹³ By his spirit he hath garnished the heavens; his hand hath formed the crooked serpent.

As a footnote here:

The Father Created the World (Gen 1:1; Isa 40:28)

The Son Created the World (Heb 1:1-3; John 1:1-4; Col 1:15-18)

The Spirit Created the World (Job 26:13)

Glorifies Jesus Christ

John 16:13-14 ¹³ "But when He, the Spirit of truth, comes, He will guide you into all the truth; for He will not speak on His own initiative, but whatever He hears, He will speak; and He will disclose to you what is to come. ¹⁴ "He will glorify Me, for He will take of Mine and will disclose it to you.

In other words, the Holy Spirit’s ministry is to lift up, glorify and show the world who Jesus Christ is. The Holy Spirit does NOT exist for Himself, rather He exists to point the world to the only Savior of sin—Jesus!

Indwells Every Believer

Romans 8:15 ¹⁵ For you have not received a spirit of slavery leading to fear again, but you have received a spirit of adoption as sons by which we cry out, "Abba! Father!"

Galatians 4:6 ⁶ Because you are sons, God has sent forth the Spirit of His Son into our hearts, crying, "Abba! Father!"

God the Holy Spirit lives inside of every single believer. He is the person in the Godhead who is actively involved inside of you (literally!) indwelling you!

d. Guarantees the Believer's Salvation

2 Corinthians 1:21-22 ²¹ Now He who establishes us with you in Christ and anointed us is God, ²² who also sealed us and gave us the Spirit in our hearts as a pledge.

Because you have God the Holy Spirit living inside of you, He is your seal, your guarantee, your down-payment, your deposit for salvation. Salvation is a DONE deal. It's accomplished. It is finished!

Romans 8:29-30 ²⁹ For those whom He foreknew, He also predestined to become conformed to the image of His Son, so that He would be the firstborn among many brethren; ³⁰ and these whom He predestined, He also called; and these whom He called, He also justified; and these whom He justified, He also glorified (note—past tense here!).

IV. What is the Holy Spirit's Role in the Writing of Scripture?

Inspiration

God wrote the Scriptures through human instruments (using their own personalities, writing styles, cultures, backgrounds, etc.) to make certain that the Scriptures (=writings) are inspired, God-breathed and fully accurate in every way, in every letter, in every book, and in everything it says.

2 Peter 1:20-21 ²⁰ But know this first of all, that no prophecy of Scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation, ²¹ for no prophecy was ever made by an act of human will, but men moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

☞ The writers of Scripture wrote as they were “moved” (literally: carried along) ✝ by the Holy Spirit! That is how inspired the Bible really is!

“The Bible bears the fingerprint of God in every single letter, word, phrase, sentence, paragraph, and book.”

Internal Testimony

Definition: The internal witness of the Spirit that produces a fullness of conviction about the certainty and reliability of Truth, the Word of God, in the mind and heart of the believer.

In other words, it is God—and GOD ALONE—who testifies to the truthfulness, veracity, authenticity, and inspiration of the Bible.

When you’re reading, when you’re studying, when you’re at church listening to a sermon, it is GOD the Holy Spirit who is teaching you as you hear His Word.

1 John 2:20⁰ But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you all know... 1 John 2:27²⁷ As for you, the anointing which you received from Him abides in you, and you have no need for anyone to teach you; but as His anointing teaches you about all things, and is true and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, you abide in Him.

1 John 3:24²⁴ The one who keeps His commandments abides in Him, and He in him. We know by this that He abides in us, by the Spirit whom He has given us.

“God intends that Scripture should function in our lives as His Spirit-illumined Word. It is the Spirit who opens man’s being to a keen personal awareness of God’s revelation” —Henry, God, Revelation, and Authority, 4:273.

What is the Holy Spirit’s Role in Salvation?

a. He Convicts the Unbeliever Concerning Sin

He convicts of sin

John 16:8⁸ "And He, when He comes, will convict the world concerning sin and righteousness and judgment;

NOTE: God the Holy Spirit is the one who convicted YOU of your sin and brought you to repentance and salvation in Jesus Christ.

ii. He regenerates

John 3:5 ⁵ Jesus answered, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

"Regeneration is the miraculous transformation of the individual and implantation of spiritual energy" (Erickson, Christian Theology, 873).

Regeneration = Born Again = New Life = Christian = A Believer

As a Christian, you have been regenerated (=given new life) by God the Holy Spirit!

He Irresistibly Calls Men to Himself

1 Peter 1:2 ² according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, by the sanctifying work of the Spirit, to obey Jesus Christ and be sprinkled with His blood: May grace and peace be yours in the fullest measure.

When you heard the Gospel and God wanted to save you, God the Spirit drew you to salvation. You could not refuse this call. When God calls to save, no one can refuse it; no one can overcome it; no one can say "NO!" to it.

He Indwells every Christian

Ephesians 1:13-14 the Holy Spirit of promise, ¹⁴ who is given as a pledge of our inheritance,

Romans 8:26 ²⁶ In the same way the Spirit also helps our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we should, but the Spirit Himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words;

This means that God the Spirit lives WITHIN YOU as a Christian.

1 Corinthians 3:16 ¹⁶ Do you not know that you are a temple of God and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?

1 Corinthians 6:19-20 ¹⁹ Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, and that you are not your own? ²⁰ For you have been bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body.

d. He Secures every Christian

Ephesians 4:30 ³⁰ Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.

Romans 8:11 ¹¹ But if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, He who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit who dwells in you.

Romans 8:14-18 ¹⁴ For all who are being led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God. For you have not received a spirit of slavery leading to fear again, but you have received a spirit of adoption as sons by which we cry out, "Abba! Father!" ¹⁶ The Spirit Himself testifies with our spirit that we are children of God, ¹⁷ and if children, heirs also, heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, if indeed we suffer with Him so that we may also be glorified with Him.

For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory that is to be revealed to us.

VI. What is the Holy Spirit's Role in Sanctification?

He Comforts every Christian

John 16:7 Unless I go away, the Counselor will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you.

The Spirit is the one who comforts you, he is your helper, your Advocate, the one who counsels you. There is no greater comforter than God the Spirit—the Holy Comforter.

He Guides every Christian

John 14:26 ²⁶ "But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I said to you.

John 16:13 ¹³ "But when He, the Spirit of truth, comes, He will guide you into all the truth; for He will not speak on His own initiative, but whatever He hears, He will speak; and He will disclose to you what is to come.

He Guards every Christian

Romans 8:27 ²⁷ and He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

He Sanctifies every Christian

1 Corinthians 6:11¹ Such were some of you; but you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Spirit of our God.

Titus 3:5⁵ He saved us, not on the basis of deeds which we have done in righteousness, but according to His mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewing by the Holy Spirit,

He Intercedes for every Christian

Romans 8:26-27⁶ In the same way the Spirit also helps our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we should, but the Spirit Himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words;
²⁷ and He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

VII.What is the Holy Spirit's Role in the Church?

He indwells every true believer

Ephesians 1:13-14¹³ In Him, you also, after listening to the message of truth, the gospel of your salvation-- having also believed, you were sealed in Him with the Holy Spirit of promise,¹⁴ who is given as a pledge of our inheritance, with a view to the redemption of God's own possession, to the praise of His glory.

He brings about unity in the church

1 Corinthians 12:7-8⁷ But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.⁸ For to one is given the word of wisdom through the Spirit, and to another the word of knowledge according to the same Spirit;

Ephesians 4:1-3 Therefore I, the prisoner of the Lord, implore you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling with which you have been called,² with all humility and gentleness, with patience, showing tolerance for one another in love,³ being diligent to preserve the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

Ephesians 4:4-6⁴ There is one body and one Spirit, just as also you were called in one hope of your calling;⁵ one Lord, one faith, one baptism,⁶ one God and Father of all who is over all and through all and in all.

God the Spirit is the one working in the church to bring about unity and Christlikeness.

VIII.What is the Holy Spirit's Role in the End Times?

At the Rapture

2 Thessalonians 2:6-8 ⁶ And you know what restrains him [=Spirit] now, so that in his time he will be revealed. ⁷ For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only he [Spirit] who now restrains will do so until he [Spirit] is taken out of the way. ⁸ Then that lawless one will be revealed whom the Lord will slay with the breath of His mouth and bring to an end by the appearance of His coming;

When the restrainer (who is, the Holy Spirit) is removed, then the church has to be removed if the Holy Spirit is dwelling within Christians. In other words, if the Spirit is removed, then we must also be removed. And we know the Spirit is removed before the Man of Lawlessness is revealed (=the Antichrist) during the Tribulation.

During the Tribulation

Revelation 7:14 ¹⁴ I said to him, "My lord, you know." And he said to me, "These are the ones who come out of the great tribulation, and they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

Though the Spirit is removed at the beginning, he will still be active in saving people during the Tribulation. There will be many people who are saved by believing in Jesus Christ (though many most of them will be killed for their faith).

IX. Practical Questions:

3. TYPES OF PRAYER

In this point, explain the types of prayer and ask the student to read the verses in the bible that show them.

Worship: To observe and tell how God is. For example: God is Love, He is the way and does good, He is great, He is graceful, He’s compassionate...(Psalms 8 :2 / Psalms 147 :5)

Praise: Proclaiming the great works God has done, exalting Him or giving Him all the glory.

(Nehemiah 9 :6 / Exodus 15 :11-13 / Psalms 145 :1-10)

Thanksgiving: Thanking God is thanking Him for all He has done for us and other people; sewing in our lives and other brothers.

Confession: (Refer to lesson two)

Intercession: It is a prayer to God not for your needs. For example: praying for others, praying for the nation/country, praying for the church, praying for people to be saved...

Supplication: In this prayer we can ask God everything because He is our father; we only need to be in His will. (Philippians 4:6-7 and 1 John 5:14-15).

The Submission of the Church (15-16)

Submit to Christ (15)

Serve for Christ (16)

So how do you know your ROLE and your GIFT and HOW you should use it in the church?

Begin by studying what the Bible has to say about spiritual gifts o Bathe your thinking, reading, and study in prayer.

Make a sober assessment of your spiritual strengths and abilities (base it on Scripture, not your “feelings”). Ask questions like: “what am I good at? What do I enjoy? Do I currently use this gift in any way? Are people blessed when I minister in this way?

Seek the wisdom of other Christians where your gifts are concerned. Ask other believers, pastors, and elders to affirm and confirm your gifts.

Concluding questions for thinking and application:

What is the Church?

(Eph 4; Col 1; Matt 16; Acts 2; 1 Tim 3-4)

What is the purpose of the Church? (Eph 4; Col 1; Acts 2:42ff; 1 Tim 3)

What marks a good and solid Church? (Acts 2:42; 1 Tim 3-4; 2 Tim 4; Titus 1-3)

What are the main activities in church? (1 Tim 4:13)

What are the pastor, elders, and deacons all about? (1 Tim 3; Titus 1; 2 Tim 2; 1 Pet 5)

1 Peter 5:1-5 Therefore, I exhort the elders among you, as your fellow elder and witness of the sufferings of Christ, and a partaker also of the glory that is to be revealed, ² shepherd the flock of God among you, exercising oversight not under compulsion, but voluntarily, according to the will of God; and not for sordid gain, but with eagerness; ³ nor yet as lording it over those allotted to your charge, but proving to be examples to the flock. ⁴ And when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the unfading crown of glory. ⁵ You younger men, likewise, be subject to your elders; and all of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, for GOD IS OPPOSED TO THE PROUD, BUT GIVES GRACE TO THE HUMBLE.

EVANGELISM AND THE BELIEVER

What is Evangelism?

Definition: Evangelism is the verbal action by which a believer communicates the gospel to the unsaved.

Another definition: “to evangelize is to present Christ Jesus in the power of the Holy Spirit, that men shall come to put their trust in God through Him, to accept Him as their Savior, and serve Him as their King in the fellowship of His Church.”

Different Greek Words for “Evangelizing”:

speak the good news – 1 Cor 15:1; Gal 1:8

tell (“teach”) the good news – Acts 5:42; 15:35 to herald/preach the gospel; invite to fellowship – Rom 10:8-15; 1 Cor 15:11; Acts 10:37

to testify, bear witness to – 1 John 1:2

to persuade, convince, bring someone to your view – Acts 12:20; 19:26; Matt 27:20

to give a short speech, short sermon – Acts 20:11

Purpose: The purpose of evangelism is relaying the saving gospel of Jesus Christ who is the only Savior for sin to the unbeliever in hopes that God the Holy Spirit might awaken their dead heart to believe the gospel, repent, and be saved.

NOTE: We should evangelize because missions is the mission of God

Result: The result of evangelism is multi-faceted:

God is glorified because His Gospel was proclaimed

The “evangelist” (one proclaiming the gospel) is a faithful servant.

The non-Christian has the opportunity to hear the Word of Christ and believe Romans 10:14 ¹⁴ How then will they call on Him in whom they have not believed? How will they believe in Him whom they have not heard? And how will they hear without a preacher?

Romans 10:17¹⁷ So faith comes from hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ.

NOTE: This means that every gospel presentation must have a specific application. In other words, you CALL and EXHORT, and COMMAND, and PLEAD with people to repent and believe upon Jesus Christ! Call them to respond to what you've just told them!

Communicate with a view to convert!

Pray with the intent of persuading!

Speak with the goal of saving!

Examples:

Jesus – John 3 with Nicodemus (“Be Born from Above!”)

Philip – Acts 8 with the Ethiopian Eunuch (“Jesus died for Sins!”)

Stephen – Acts 7 with the Jewish Leaders (“You Stubborn People—Repent!”) Paul – Acts 26 to Herod Agrippa (“I am persuading you—Believe!”)

And, love must make the evangelist warm-hearted and affectionate in his evangelism. Love the sinner. Plead with him to repent! Warn him of coming judgment and fire!

→ And, it is the most loving thing to (ever) do to warn people of coming hell and future judgment and eternal damnation! If you call yourself a Christian and DON'T care about evangelizing others, don't care about saving their souls, don't care about seeing them repent and be saved, then you probably are NOT a Christian!!

What is the Purpose of Evangelism?

Again, missions is the mission of God.

God is about taking his gospel to the ends of the earth.

Psalm 96:1-6 Sing to the LORD a new song; Sing to the LORD, all the earth.² Sing to the LORD, bless His name; Proclaim good tidings of His salvation from day to day.³ Tell of His glory among the nations, His wonderful deeds among all the peoples.⁴ For great is the LORD and greatly to be praised; He is to be feared above all gods.⁵ For all the gods of the peoples are idols, But the LORD made the heavens.⁶ Splendor and majesty are before Him, Strength and beauty are in His sanctuary.

Psalm 96:9-13⁹ Worship the LORD in holy attire; Tremble before Him, all the earth.¹⁰ Say among the nations, "The LORD reigns; Indeed, the world is firmly established, it will not be moved; He will judge the peoples with equity."¹¹ Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice; Let the sea roar, and all it contains;¹² Let the field exult, and all that is in it. Then all the trees of the forest will sing for joy¹³ Before the LORD, for He is coming, For He is coming to judge the earth. He will judge the world in righteousness And the peoples in His faithfulness.

c. We should evangelize to be OBEDIENT to our God and Savior!

2 Timothy 4:5⁵ But you, be sober in all things, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry.

So if we know this command to "do the work of an evangelist," and we have no option of NOT obeying because...

John 14:15¹⁵ "If you love Me, you will keep My commandments.

Therefore, we must obey and be "evangelists" – sharing the gospel!

1 Peter 3:15-16¹⁵ but sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts, always being ready to make a defense to everyone who asks you to give an account for the hope that is in you, yet with gentleness and reverence;¹⁶ and keep a good conscience so that in the thing in which you are slandered, those who revile your good behavior in Christ will be put to shame.

If God is Sovereign, Why Evangelize?

Many people ask, if you believe God saves someone, God predestines and elects someone to salvation, then WHY share the gospel? In other words, if salvation is ALL God's Work, why should I evangelize?

If they're going to get saved, then God will save them—I don't need to evangelize! Right?
WRONG! This is sinful and anti-biblical thinking! Nothing could be more disgraceful to Jesus Christ and the gospel of salvation!

a. God is Absolutely Sovereign Over Everybody's Salvation

God saves (2 Timothy 1:9)

God draws (John 6:44)

God elects (2 Thessalonians 2:14)

God predestines (Ephesians 1:3-4)

God calls (Romans 8:29-30)

God gives faith to believe in Him (Ephesians 2:8-10; Philippians 1:29)

Man has a Responsibility to Believe in Jesus Christ

Repent! (Matthew 4:17)

Believe! (Acts 16:31)

Turn! (Acts 14:15)

Confess! (Philippians 2:11)

Christians Also have a Responsibility to Share the Gospel

Note these verses: Read them!

1 Corinthians 9:16

“According to the Bible, all believers have received this commission... It’s clear too, from all the talk of persecution in the New Testament that the earliest Christians didn’t try to keep their religion a secret, even though sharing it brought consequences” (Dever, Gospel & Personal Evangelism, 47-48).

How do they reconcile?

We must pray for the salvation of people, we must preach as if their salvation depended on us, we must call them to repentance and urge them to believe as if they were going to die today; yet knowing that Jesus Christ is totally sovereign over their salvation and He will save them if He wants!

We are the vessel, the instrument, and the MEANS that GOD uses to bring the gospel to them!

“We must remember that God’s sovereignty and man’s responsibility are taught us side by side in the same Bible; sometimes, indeed, in the same text” (Packer, Evangelism & The Sovereignty of God, 22).

Luke 22:22 ²² "For indeed, the Son of Man is going as it has been determined; but woe to that man by whom He is betrayed!"

Acts 2:23 ³ this Man [=Jesus], delivered over by the predetermined plan and foreknowledge of God, you nailed to a cross by the hands of godless men and put Him to death.

Therefore, they must be held together (as friends), and not played off against each other (as enemies). Man is a responsible moral agent, though he is also divinely controlled; man is divinely controlled, though he is also a responsible moral agent. God's sovereignty is a reality, and man's responsibility is a reality too. This is the revealed antinomy ("apparent" contradiction) in terms of which we have to do our thinking about evangelism (see Packer, Evangelism, 23).

Well, you ask, how do they reconcile since they both can't be true? They can't be true? Are you sure? Spurgeon was asked: if he could try to reconcile divine sovereignty and human responsibility and he answered: "I wouldn't even try, I never reconcile friends!"

IV. How should the Christian Evangelize?

Share the whole gospel:

Man's sin and need for a Savior

God and His infinite holiness and justice

Jesus Christ and His death in the place of sinners who believe

Jesus Christ's resurrection from the dead (proving His power!)

Repentance, faith, and a LIFE of obedience.

Obedience and fruit-bearing as the Christian grows and matures.

Finally, the Christian should evangelize with urgency. "We must emphasize the urgency with which people ought to repent and believe if they will be saved. They must decide now. They certainly shouldn't wait until a "better deal" comes along. People might be careful enough with their money to wait to sign up for a cell phone plan. But there's no point here in waiting for a better offer of forgiveness... It's not manipulative or insensitive to bring up the urgent nature of salvation. It's simply the truth. The time of opportunity will end! (Dever, Gospel & Personal Evangelism, 57-58).

Why Can't My Friends Believe When I Evangelize? See 1 Corinthians 2:14-16.

A natural man (“unspiritual” nonbeliever!) does not accept the things of the Spirit of God. He doesn’t care about them!

The spiritual things are foolishness to the nonbeliever!

Note: He cannot understand them. The nonbeliever cannot fully comprehend and understand the spiritual things of God’s Word.

The nonbeliever cannot understand the spiritual truths because they are spiritually dead! But the spiritual one (“the Christian” believer!) CAN and DOES understand spiritual things because we have the “mind of Christ”

Question: Why don’t my friends believe?

Answer? Because God hasn’t opened their eyes yet. So keep preaching. Keep praying. Keep evangelizing. Keep warning them of judgment and pleading with them to believe!

LISTEN: it is THE most loving thing YOU COULD EVER DO!

Listen, no one can ever believe the gospel until God opens their eyes to see the glories of Jesus Christ and the forgiveness He alone can offer.

VI.What Is the Proper Christian Attitude Towards Evangelism?

Pray! Prayer is confessing your powerlessness and need, it is an acknowledging of helpless and dependence, and an invoking of the mighty power of God to do for us what we cannot do for ourselves—save someone! In evangelism, we depend wholly upon God to make our witness effective … these facts ought to drive us to prayer! (Packer, Evangelism, 122).

Preach as if their salvation depended upon you! Pray as if their salvation wholly depended on God. And do both—preach and pray; trust and talk; speak to God and speak to others!

But remember: “According to the Bible, converting people (=saving people) is not in our power. And evangelism may not be defined in terms of result but only in terms of faithfulness to the message preached” (Dever, Gospel, 79).

One more quote will suffice:

“Evangelism is not persuading people to make a decision; it is not proving that God exists, or making out a good case for the truth of Christianity; it is not inviting someone to a meeting; it is not exposing the contemporary dilemma, or arousing interest in Christianity; it is not wearing badge saying ‘Jesus Saves’! Some of these things may be right and good in their place, but none of them should be confused with evangelism. To evangelize is to declare on the authority of God what he has done to save sinners, to warn men of their lost condition, to direct them to repent, and to believe in the Lord Jesus Christ!”

—John Cheeseman, Saving Grace, quoted in Dever, Gospel, 80.

15. SECOND COMING OF CHRIST, RESSURRECTION OF BELIEVERS AND UNBELIEVERS AND FINAL JUDGEMENT

We believe in the second coming of Christ. His return from heaven will be personal, visible and glorious, a blessed hope for which we should constantly watch and pray.[1]

Before He establishes His kingdom on earth, Jesus will come for His Church, an event commonly referred to as the "Rapture." At that time the dead in Christ will be raised and living Christians will be caught up to meet the Lord in the air and be with Him forever.[2] In this resurrection, those who have died in Christ will have their redeemed souls and spirits united with a body similar to Christ's glorified body. Christians living at the time of this event will not die, but will be changed to be like Christ.[3] This expectation is a motivation for holy living, as well as a source of comfort.[4] No man knows the day or the hour when this will take place.[5]

After the Rapture of the Church, Christians will be brought before the judgment seat of Christ. He will reward them on the basis of the works they have accomplished.[6] This is not a judgment to determine their salvation but a reward for labor on Christ's behalf.[7] The Rapture will also inaugurate a period that the Bible characterizes as the "great day of His wrath," "the great tribulation" and the "time of Jacob's trouble."[8] This time of unprecedented difficulty will affect Israel and all nations. Its purpose will be to prepare Israel for her Messiah.[9]

At the end of the Tribulation, Jesus Christ will return with the hosts of heaven as well as the Church to establish the Messianic Kingdom on earth.[10] His Kingdom will last for a thousand years.[11] At this Second Coming, the Antichrist will be cast into the Lake of Fire and Satan will be bound for a thousand years. [12] The nations and their representatives will be judged.[13] Israel will be restored to her land, never more to be removed.[14] Christ will reign with firmness and equity.[15] His kingdom will be marked by material and spiritual blessing, since the curse upon the earth will be removed.[16]

The Messianic Kingdom will close with apostasy and rebellion.[17] God will crush this uprising in the last battle of the ages and Satan will be thrown into the lake of fire.[18] All those who rejected the Word of God will be resurrected.[19] They will be judged by Christ and cast into the lake of fire, the place where they will suffer final and everlasting punishment.[20]

After this judgment there will be a new heaven and a new earth, where righteousness is the norm.[21] There will be a new Jerusalem and the everlasting presence of God among all the redeemed.[22]
